Dedication

We, the staff of the 1967 Hillcrest, dedicate this annual to the citizens of the Colby School District in appreciation for the sacrifices they have made to enable us to further our education.

"tato me!"

Hi Jeff
Have lot of fun this summer and take it easy on the girls too.
Love love a lot

ADMINISTRATION

School Board members are (left to right): Directors Robert Graff, W. C. Pinter; Treasurer Earl Boss; Clerk G. J. Wiedenhoeft; President Ansel Messer; Directors Brice Bender, Ted Grammer. The Board of Education of the Colby Public School District authorizes every action and important decision of the school district. The School Board recognizes the importance of providing the students with the opportunity to learn the importance of social growth.

Mr. Hendrickson received his Bachelor's Degree at La Crosse State University, and his Master's Degree at the University of Wisconsin. For the past three years Mr. Hendrickson has been superintendent of the Colby School System. As administrator, he must carry out all policies of the school board, direct the curriculum studies of the schools in the district, and is responsible for staff assignments.

Mr. Kassera has been the principal of Colby High School for the past three years. As principal, his main duty, as unwelcome as it may be, is taking disciplinary actions. He was a teacher for ten years before becoming principal. Mr. Kassera received his Bachelor's Degree at Eau Claire State College and his Master's Degree at Superior University.

Graduating from Wisconsin State University, Whitewater with a Bachelor's Degree, Mr. Martin Haavisto, our student guidance counselor, furthered his education by completing work for his Master's Degree at Wisconsin State University, Superior. In the past Mr. Haavisto has been a helpful guide to all students and graduates of Colby High School in offering information on occupations and higher education.

MRS. WILDE, Secretary
Mrs. Wilde's main jobs are checking attendance records, handling activity and organizational money, and making announcements. She had no training as far as secretarial school is concerned, but she has for two previous years been a secretary at Colby Grade School. Prior to this she was a secretary at Loos Machine Shop.

MISS MILLER, Secretary
Miss Miller's main jobs are handling district work. She records district bills, writes district letters, and does the district bookkeeping. She started her job immediately after graduating from Colby High School.

A custodian's work is never done. This holds especially true for Mr. Alex Hilber and Mr. Jerome Schultz, better-known as "Alex" and "Gramps" the Colby High School custodians. Yet they never seem too busy for a friendly word or smile.

Band, a Big Part of

"Tune up now," and "Listen to each other," is heard daily by band members as they practice for a concert or music festival. Under the direction of Mr. Rickard, the band also peps up pep sessions with lively marches and modern favorites. A candy sale before Valentine's Day provides money to sponsor students at a summer music camp. The pounding rhythms of drums can be heard in Colby streets as the band practices marching, following a high-stepping majorette and twirlers.

Band officers for the present school year are: President, Kathy Lamont; Vice-President, Connie Firnstahl; Secretary-Treasurer, Ann Lenz; Librarian, Eileen Weller; and Instrumentalist, Judy Allar.

The high-strutting twirlers and drum-majorette lead the band in the street parades and marches. The girls are Mary Lee Brunker, Kathy Lamont, Patti Kadonsky, Ann Lenz, Cheryl Gosse, and Majorette Connie Firnstahl.

Games and Pep Sessions

"Ah, Toro," shouts Matador Paul Brehm as the band practices for a football half time show. Paul put up a good fight, but the bull won. Bravo!

Mr. Rickard and band members stomp their feet as they play for pep session before the team stomps out their opponents.

C.H.S. Chorus -- Voices

The Boys' Quartet, a new addition this year, participated in the concerts held and also sang for the Lion's Club. The Quartet includes: Jerry Werner, John Weix, Dave Koch, and John Weber.

"Take a big, deep breath," "Use those lungs what were they made for," and "Please! Quiet." "Now sing," are constant piques from Mr. Sevals, the chorus director, to the students of Colby High School's chorus. We at Colby really do have a fine chorus with approximately 56 well-toned students. Mr. Sevals, the director, came to Colby High two years ago exposing the chorus members to all kinds of music from pop, jazz, and religious songs, to Broadway play productions. It's been a yearly tradition at C. H. S. for the chorus to participate with the band, under the band director, Mr. Richard, in spring, fall, and Christmas concerts that are thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Spring Music festival is also a yearly event that enables students to display their musical ability while competing with other schools for prizes. Another yearly tradition is to have students from the C. H. S. choir participate in the Mass Choir. This is a choir composed of students from nearby schools who practice and put on a public concert. Students who took part this year were: Sheila Koplitz, Sue Leichnam, Barb Meyer, Margie Hederer, John Weber, Pete Kaiser, John Weix, and Jerry Werner.

Raised in Song

Each year nine girls are chosen from the chorus to create a group known as the "Triple Trio." The group sings at Christmas and spring concerts and also enter solo and ensemble competitions. This year they also sang at the Christmas meeting of the Blue

Assistant Editors, Mary Lee Bruncker and Mary Lamont; Editor, Claudette Kuehling; and Copy Editor, Kathy Lamont; review last year's annual.

Advisors, Mr. Jarzin and Mr. Anderle, give their OK to the layout plans for a new page.

Candid's were taken by photographers, Pete Neitzel and Galen Fitzel.

Typists were Jane McDonald, Judy Allar, Betty Dearth, Marge Hederer, and Ann Lenz.

Ruth Kaiser, Connie Firnstahl, Gail Reineking, Galen Fitzel, and Aaron Staab solicited ads from area merchants.

"Hornet's Buzz Staff

"The newspaper deadline is next week and we have work to do." Editor Ruth Kaiser keeps the staff hopping.

When "all articles must be turned in by ..." is heard over the loudspeaker, members of The Hornet's Buzz think "Oh, oh!" After the articles are turned in, the production staff knuckles down to type stencils, headlines, and letter each page. The "Hornet's Buzz" is edited about 8 times during the school year. The December issue is entered in a contest sponsored by the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, and contains cartoons and feature stories to "Knock-Out TB." Chiefs of staff attend conferences and conventions to get new and better ideas for the paper. The "Hornet's Buzz" chiefs of staff consists of Ruth Kaiser, Editor; Sue Mueller, Assistant Editor; Gail Reineking, Cover designer; Sue Schraufnagel, Headliner; Sandra Ludwig, Typing; Ann Feldbruegge, News; Betty Dearth, Exchange; and Mark Schjoneman, Production; Advisor, Mrs. Schreiber.

The State of Badger

Mary Ann Johnson and Kathy Lamont were chosen as delegates to Badger Girl's State. The one week session, from June 11 to 18 was held at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. Delegates attended lectures and meetings on the functions of various levels of government. A mythical 51st state was set up and run by the girls and the officials they elected. A tour of the Capital on Friday and a visit from Governor Knowles were some of the high-points of the week. The girls were sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Delegates to the Boy's State were Lee Waldhart and Dean Podevels. Sponsored by the American Legion and Colby Chamber of Commerce, the boys attended the session held from June 11 to the 18th at Ripon College in Ripon. The program is designed to give future male citizens an understanding of the American way of life through the principles of self-government. The boys elected state, county, and city officials.

Award Winner

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow is an award given each year to the senior home economics student receiving the highest score on the Betty Crocker Homemaking Test. This year's recipient was Diana Bessler. Diana was presented with a medal and was eligible to compete in the "Homemaker of Tomorrow" contest.

DAR

Kathy Lamont received this year's Daughters of the American Revolution Award. Four girls were nominated for the award by the senior class and the faculty chose one girl for the award. The choice was made on the basis of leadership, dependability, and patriotism. Kathy is eligible to compete for the state DAR award.

VOD

Winner of the Voice of Democracy Contest from C.H.S. was Jim Staffeill. The title of Jim's essay was "Democracy--What It Means to Me." Jim won a $25 savings bond and the right to compete in the district contest. The contest is sponsored annually by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and is open to juniors and seniors. The essay was judged on the basis of content, originality, and presentation.

Masquer's Presents . . .

"Ah ha! Here's the culprit who stole the jewels!" exclaims Hard-Boiled MacCafferty, portrayed by Woody Weidenhoeft in a scene from the C.H.S. production "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy!"

"Hold still . . . Will you please hold still . . . cotton-pickin; now you've got a black line down the side of your face." These phrases were familiar as the make-up crew frantically smeared grease-paint on members of the cast for "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy!" produced by the Masquer's Club. Fighting a "Curtain in five minutes" and trying to put on eye liner when someone kept blinking, were just a few of the obstacles they had to overcome. But, in spite of the last minute rush and uneasy stomachs, all went well and the play was a success.

Masquer's Club members also participate in forensics contests. A forensic student may progress as far as the state forensic meet if he receives an "A" rating at each of the local, sectional and regional meets.

The Officers for the 65-66 school year are: President, Claudette Kuehling; Vice-President, Cindy Kocian; Secretary, Carolyn Kuester; and Treasurer, Ann Lenz; Advisor is Miss Cunitz.

Librarians Work Hard for C.H.S. Students

Shirley Stibbe and Judy Safemaster sort the cards of books that are due. Service with a smile - except when they drop the cards.

Phrases such as "Are the magazines in yet? I want to renew this book, and Could I have a dictionary, please?" are familiar to all student librarians. The girls work during their free hours, helping Mrs. Tennis keep the library in order. Their duties include checking out books, magazines, and newspapers, keeping the shelves in order, and rounding up students with overdue books. Each year the club sponsors a spring trip and a Christmas party. Officers are installed during a mother-daughter banquet which everyone enjoys. Officers are Mary Lou Haas, President; Jocell Weix, Vice-President; Sharon Firnstahl, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mary Ann Johnson, Reporter. The advisor is Mrs. Tennis.

AFS'ers on the Go!

"Hey boys, Kill 'em!" was heard frequently at sports events this year as Teresa Cruz yelled to back our team. Teresa was from Peru and stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Binning of Unity.

Sounds of Monday morning at C. H. S. resemble those heard during a carrot-eating contest as hundreds of students munch carrots during their first hour classes. Thus AFS Week begins with the traditional "Carrot's Day." It goes on to include Short's Day, assemblies, noon-hour dances, and auctions. Area exchange students are invited to spend a day at C. H. S. and talk of their native countries during the assembly. AFS'ers sell school supplies and books to raise money to sponsor exchange students. The American Field Service works to promote better world understanding.

Student Council Reorganized

A meeting of the Student Council in the economics sewing room, not really an appropriate place, however, the topics at hand do get discussed.

"This meeting will now come to order, and remember 'parliamentary procedure,'" shouts Woody Weidenhoeft as he presides over a Student Council meeting. The main goal of this year's council was the reorganizing of the Constitution. They also sponsored a dance and instituted the National Honor Society. Officers gave campaign speeches and were elected by majority vote of the student body.

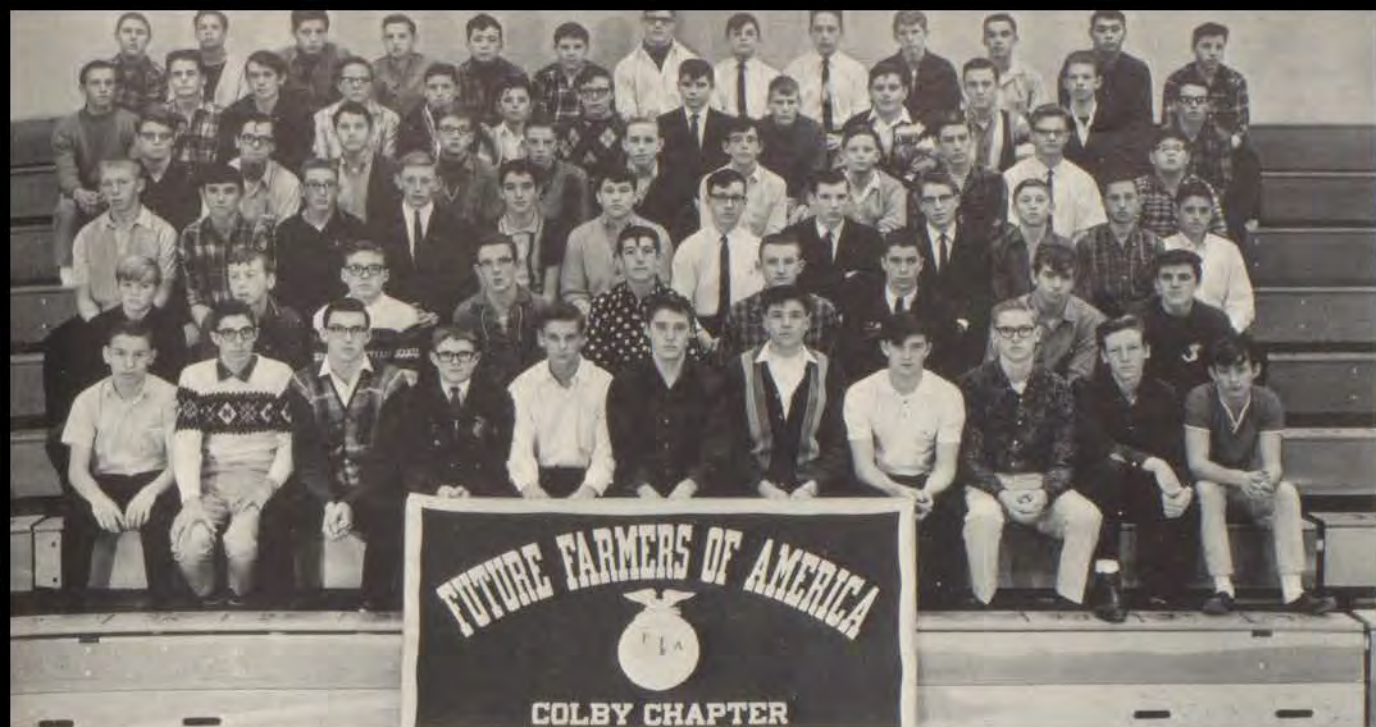

Future Farmers of America

"Whipped Cream and Other Delights" held true for these green hands on Initiation Night, as their stunts for membership involved a whipped cream fight. How sweet it is!

Some boys want to join FFA so bad they will crawl the length of the gym floor. That's just what Jim Mantor is doing as he pushes a lump of coal with his nose.

Combine Hard Work and Fun

Hoots and howls are heard each year by FFA members as new "green hands" are initiated. To become a member of the club, each boy must fulfill some requirement. It may be pushing coals the length of the gym floor, filling a pint jar with water, teaspoon by teaspoon, or having a whipped-cream fight.

The boys also sponsor a Talent Night and Card Party. In cooperation with FHA, the club also collects and mends toys for the Christmas toy drive. The officers for the 65-66 school year are: President, Tom Weis; Vice-President, Jerry Flink; Secretary, Gerald Brecke; Treasurer, Ron Cook; Reporter, Darrell Krebsbach; Sentinel, Roger Krueger; Advisor, Mr. Lambert.

Jackie Kaiser was chosen as FFA Sweetheart on the basis of a written essay. The club sponsored her as a contestant in county competition, where she won the title of Marathon County Dairy Princess.

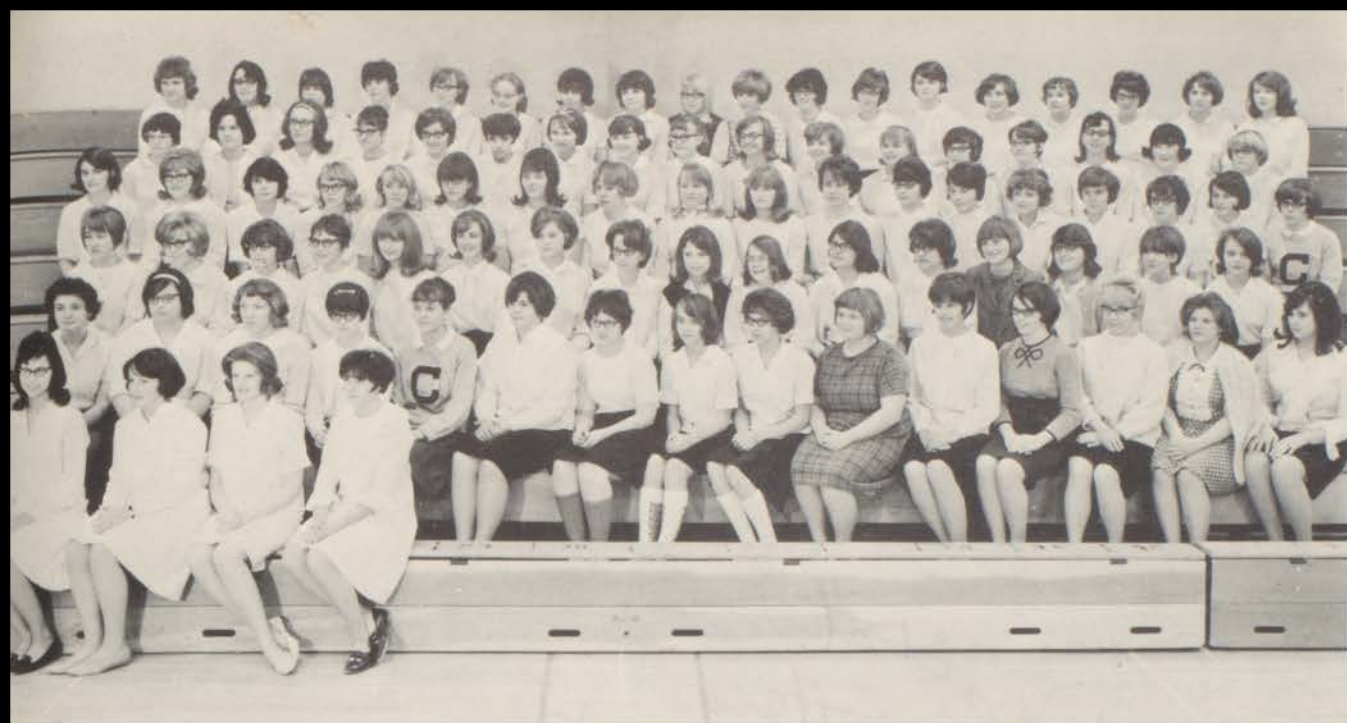

Future Homemakers of America --

"Santa Claus is coming to town" and here, playing Santa's helpers are Carol Bauer, Joyce Staab, and Elisabeth Kuesel. The girls are wrapping toys for the Christmas Toy Drive.

"Please put this truck in the pile by your foot" and "this doll has a new dress and is ready to wrap" are familiar sounds with FHA'ers before Christmas. Working with the FFA, members of the Future Homemakers of America collect old toys and change them into Christmas gifts for needy children of the Community.

Last minute dress alterations and decorating the gym are part of another annual event, the Spring Style Show. The girls model outfits they have made and, after the Style Show, the officers for the ensuing year are installed. The club sells cookbooks and caramel apples, and sponsors bake sales to raise money for a spring trip and the FFA-FHA Toboggan Party.

Girls with a Goal

FHA officers for the 66-67 school year are:
 Advisor, Mrs. Hinks; President, Kathy Lamont;
 Vice-President, Mary Lee Brunker; Secretary, Ruth
 Kaiser; Treasurer, Pam Krueger; Historian, Joan Weiler; Parliamentarian, Delores Helfert; Recreation Leader, Ann Umhoefer; Reporter, Sue Leichtnam; Advisor, Mrs. Subera (absent when picture was taken.)

Santa helps the girls get into the holiday spirit by dropping in for lunch during a surprise visit to C.H.S. Fortunately for the cooks, he didn't bring his reindeer.

Girls Athletic Association

Girls get in position for a jump ball in a fast, rough-and-tumble game of basketball. GAA provides an opportunity for the sports-minded girl to participate in team and individual competition.

"Oh, oh! A gutter ball!" "Sink it! Make a basket!" The cries of crazy people? Not quite. Just a group of wacky girls, members of the Girls' Athletic Association, having loads of fun bowling, and playing basketball.

Miss Hopkins, club advisor, is kept busy all year long, supervising volleyball, badminton, track, and baseball, in addition to bowling and basketball. Next year two new sports, archery and water ballet and swimming, will be added to the program. The Board of Directors is composed of Seniors Kathy Smith, Cheryl Baehler, and Kay Goeltz; Juniors Helen Denzin, Linda Jochimsen, and Becky Bluhm; Sophomores Chris Firnstahl, Nancy Goeltz, and Sue Leichtman; and Freshmen Regina Miller, Diane Gripenrog, and Virginia Weber.

Has a Busy Year

"Hey, we just won our game," shout the girls on the far end of the court as they pause for a moment before facing a new team. Girls on the near court are still trying for a win.

Miss Hopkins running away? Is she camera-shy or just afraid that the pyramid made by the girls in phy. ed. will tumble over backwards?

Lettermen's Club

"How much money do we have in the treasury?" is a standard question at a meeting of the Lettermen's Club. Why? Ask your favorite letterman - he'll tell you. All major letter winners are admitted to this honorary society which promotes school athletics. The club sponsors a dance and the spring basketball tournaments. The boys also go on a spring trip. Officers are Ron Dums, President; John Becherer, Vice-President; and Greg Polster, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Teska and Mr. Subera are the club's advisors.

Jim Harris is a nut - Tough Nut, that is, - and recipient of this year's Tough Nut Award. The award is given to the senior player on the football team who accumulates the highest number of defensive points.

Beanies and Sweatshirts for Pep Club

Pep Club members show off their sweatshirts and beanies. "Colby Hornets" is written in gold on a green background on the sweatshirts and a hornet carries a sign proclaiming "victory". The beanies are green and gold with C. H. S. written on the front.

"Go, you mighty Hornets, go, go, go" is the official chant of the 98-member pep club, composed of juniors, seniors, and cheerleaders. The club sponsors homecoming festivities, including the skits, bonfire, and dance. The club also sponsors a spring picnic for its members. Cheering at the top of their voices, the members provide important support for the basketball, football, and wrestling teams of C.H.S. Beanies and sweatshirts are worn on the day of a game and at the game.

Officers are Greg Polster, President; Sue Loos, Vice-president; Cindy Kocian, Secretary; and Mary Lamont, Treasurer. Advisors are Mr. Subera and Miss Hopkins.

Junior Dairymen Bring Home Trophies

The purpose of the Wisconsin Junior Dairyman's Association is to promote the testing of your herd and to promote milk production. This year six boys participated in the State WJDA showings and all six boys won.

During the year the club sponsored a dance and attended two district meetings. The officers are: President, Dan Bender; Vice-president, John Becker; Secretary, Dave Grewe; Treasurer, Allan Venzke; Directors, Dennis Grammer and Richard Hraban. The advisors are Mr. Steffen and Mr. Lambert.

Photography, a New Organization

View of the dark room shows developing tank in foreground and three enlargers on the shelf in the background.

"Don't scratch the negatives" and "Leave the lights off or you'll expose this film" are commands issued by the inhabitants of the dark room. The Photography Club has turned an old storage room into a dark room, enabling its members to develop their won pictures and negatives. The dark room is equipped with three enlargers, two dryers, one dry mounter, and developing tanks. Officers are Pete Neitzel, President and Galen Fitzel, Vice-president and Secretary. The advisor is Mr. Nomady.

School spirit is given a boost at homecoming when the four classes compete in a hall decoration contest. Even the freshmen get some pretty good ideas, as can be seen from this view of their hall decorations. The halls were judged after school and prizes were given.

Senior He-men, Terry Schilling and Mark Schjoneman, throw tires on a heap for the bonfire. A crew of boys scoured the town collecting boxes, tires, paper, and anything else that would burn. The rubbish was hauled to the parking lot by the truckfull and piled into a giant-sized heap.

Spirits soar with the flames as a match is touched to the bonfire. The skits are over and all the students rush outside to do a few more cheers before joining hands in the snake dance. Winding its way downtown, the snake reaches the Dairy Corner and stops for a coke and chat before going home.

Court members are: Lilli Neuman, Susie Schraufnagel, Cindy Kocian, Barb Stoiber, Queen Kathy Schmid, King Bill Trump, Jim Mantor, Darrel Krebsbach, Verlyn Roth, and Tom Weis.

With rapt attention, crownbearers Evonne Schmid and Mitchell Kaiser watched as last year's Junior Prom King, Larry Westberg crowned the new king.

"Love Makes the World Go

"Love Makes the World Go Round," our world of green and blue crepe paper. One of the most unusual decorating schemes ever seen at C. H. S. aided the Class of '67" in having a most successful prom.

"Love Makes the World Go Round" or it seemed that way on the night of April 30th at the Colby High School Junior Prom. Couples began arriving promptly at 8:30 and kept coming and coming to make the Junior Prom one of the most successful proms ever held in Colby High School. Properly attired for the evening, as were the couples, the gym was a haze of blue crepe paper from the high false ceiling to the light blue table coverings. Red and pink crepe paper roses, like those entwined on the white picket fence encircling the ballroom, adorned the tables. The stage was decorated with silvery stars and the theme "Love Makes the World Go Round" in sparkling silver letters. The punch table resembled a quaint, brick wishing well with roses clinging to the sides. With the soft, low lights, everyone danced around the huge, paper-stuffed revolving globe, to the music of Jimmy Stieber and his orchestra. The climax of the evening was the coronation ceremony when Bill Trump was crowned King and he crowned his Queen Kathy Schmid.

Queen Kathy Schmid with her kingly escort, Bill Trump, begin the last phase of the Grand March which leads to the stage and the crowning, the climax of the evening. Evonne, Kathy's sister is carrying the star-studded crown, making sure not to drop it.

Now that the court has had their turn in the spotlight, it's the couples' turns. The girls in their long, flowing gowns and sparkling eyes enjoy dancing with their dates to the music of Jimmy Stieber and his orchestra.

Round" Junior Prom

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief the night of the prom as they walked in the gym doors and saw the huge, revolving world amidst the haze of blue crepe paper. For just a few short hours ago, the gym had looked like this!

Everyone was working like beavers to get the world done in time. But there is always time for a picture isn't there Bob?

Seniors Sponsor

Junior class president, Dean Podevels, does the honors as he crowns Sno-Ball king, Harley Larson, at the height of "Wonderland" festivities.

Sno-Ball couples seem to be having a very good time as they dance their way through the night!

After the grand march, Margie Hederer and Harley Larson were crowned queen and king of the Senior Sno-Ball. The gym was decorated in a winter mural, glittery mittens with the names of couples upon them, flocked trees, with the center of attraction, a huge tissue stuffed snowman to coordinate with the theme "Winter Wonderland."

Posing for pictures before the decorations are completed, Diane Stabb and Larry Smart take off a minute's work to get in the limelight.

Sno-Ball

Saturday, January 14, from 8:30 to 11:30, at the Colby High School Gymnasium, with music provided by Jimmy Stieber and his orchestra, was what all the brightly, colored posters in the halls said. Saturday came quickly and with it all the last minute dress alterations, decorations for the gym, and butterflies in the stomach. That night the school gymnasium was transformed into the ballroom of Henry VIII. The low, lying false ceiling was created with hazy blue and teal blue crepe paper streamers and the tables were also decorated in blue, adorned with tiny, glittering wax centerpieces. The gymnasium was appropriately decorated to the theme "Winter Wonderland" with the soft lights accenting the stage with all its blue, green, and white snow-flocked trees. The center of attention was the comical, seven-foot snowman stuffed with tissue paper and a black top hat to adorn his head. But one must not forget the beautiful girls in their long flowing dresses and the lilting melodies of the orchestra which made that winter's night a real wonderland.

Susie Loos and Gail Reineking are in the middle of some "sticky business" as they make centerpieces for the Sno-Ball.

Athletics

The football players according to their numbers are:
 9 - Gary Dums, 12 - Arvie Leonhard, 19 - Greg Polster, 21 - Don Gipp, 22 - Ron Dums, 31 - Jerry Werner, 33 - John Weis, 40 - Emery Neitzel, 41 - Joe Penny, 46 - Dave Poennelt, 47 - Greg Gorke, 51 - John Becker, 55 - Lee Waldhart, 58 - Jim Harris, 60 - John Becherer, 63 - Jerry Salter, 64 - Jim Staffeil, 66 - Gary Waldhart, 70 - Gene Reine-

king, 74 - Mark Marcott, 75 - Brad Schultz, 77 - John Schmidt, 80 - Larry Meyer, 83 - Jim Vorland, 88 - Mike Schultz. Due to bad breaks in the early part of the season, not pictured are Jim Mantor, Tom Weis, Roger Krueger, and Allen Schultz. Mr. Teska was coach and Mr. Subera and Mr. Gunderson were assistant coaches.

Football

Football Coach, Mr. Teska, chats with a referee before the game. Although he is smiling now, he will be serious during the game--until the victory is ours!

The '66 Hornet Football Team had a very impressive season compiling an 8-1 record. At one time being rated No. 1 in the Little Ten and concluded the season by holding seventh place. Due to the improvement of the '65 team, a new gridiron was constructed, allowing all games to be played at night. On October 12, during half time of the Colby-Loyal game, the new football field was dedicated.

Werner, Roger Krueger, (kneeling) Lonny Hesgard, Terry Ludwig, Greg Polster, Woody Wiedenhoeft, Gary Dums, and Tom Hilber.

Hornets Buzz Around

"Hurry up, Mike--Greg shot already!"

The Colby High School basketball team completed regular season play by finishing fourth in the Cloverbelt Conference. They missed a tie for conference first place by one game. The Hornets played, perhaps one of its toughest non-conference schedules as almost all opponents finished near or on top of their respective conferences.

The Hornets, lacking speed and of average height, improved as the season progressed and climaxed the regular season with a victory over Loyal and finished the conference race with a 6-4 record.

Graduating from the squad will be Ron Dums, an all-conference selection, Jerry Werner, Woody Wiedenhoeft, Evan Mierkey, and Roger Krueger. A fine nucleus of underclassmen will return for next year.

"B" squad basketball includes: (standing) Coach Steffen, Dick Hraban, Ken Beyerel, Larry Haas, Jim Dallman, Brad Schultz, Leon Dommer, (kneeling) Emery Neitzel, Phil Werner, John Boss, Alan Krueger, Don Friday, Ron Schmidt, and Al Kaiser.

Wrestlers Finish Second

The wrestling squad finished a fine season, holding second place in our division. At the Conference Wrestl-offs in Cornell, Mark Leonhard, at 103, received a first. Arvie Leonhard, at 112, received a second. Jerry Salter, at 145, and Ken Cole, at 154, received thirds, and Dan Bender, at 95, received a fourth place ribbon. Although the team will be hurt because of graduating seniors, a promising group of underclassmen will return next year.

Wrestlers line-up as they are introduced before the match. Talk about a lot of muscle in one place.

"Oh, oh, I think something ripped," seems to be Greg's first concern as he clears the high jump.

Track

Track has a limited season due to the weather conditions. It is an individual sport because of the competition between two athletes and a group competition because opposing teams are fighting to obtain the greatest total score. Track includes the high and low hurdles, high jump, pole vault, shotput, discus throw, broad jump, relays, and dashes. What do you do in track? Well-- "We run and run and run."

"Annie, Annie, over," says Mike Schultz as he gets ready to throw the shotput.

Mark Carpenter shows some of the form which enabled him to participate in the shotput at the state track meet.

Returning golfers, Larry Meyer, Bill Trump, and Jerry Werner, pose with their clubs.

Tee for Five

"In golf you 'tee' off, you hack at a ball." Believe it or not, this statement came directly from a golfer. A conference team consists of five golfers. Bill Trump, Jerry Werner, Larry Meyer and two additional boys who graduated last year made up the '66 team. The team finished second in conference matches and also placed second in the tournament play.

Bill concentrates hard while trying to sink a putt. Look at that form!

Who-o-o-op! Jerry sends the ball flying as he tees off on the fifth hole.

A" Squad Cheerleaders

"A little louder now" is a favorite line used by the A-squad cheerleaders Lois Sommer, Sue Loos, Donna Koffarnus, Paula Anderson, and Donna Frome as they led the victory yells of C. H. S. students.

A-squad tryouts are held in May, and any sophomore, junior, or senior is eligible. The A-squad cheers for football and varsity basketball games, and alternate for wrestling matches.

"B" Squad Cheerleaders

"Two bits, four bits" chant the B-squad as all loyal Colby fans stand up and holler. Comprising this year's squad are (from back) Judy Mueller, Faye Krueger, Carol Bauer, Nancy Goeltz, and Joyce Dums. Tryouts are held in November with freshmen, sophomores, and juniors eligible to try out. The B-squad cheers for junior varsity basketball games and takes turns cheering for wrestling matches.

Colby School Song

Oh every Colby team is quite complete,
They look one hundred per from head to feet.
They've got that smile, that style, that winning way.
No matter where they go you'll recognize them and you'll say.
Now there's a team I'd like to know.
They've got that good ole hornet pep and go.
A fighting victory will be our cry.
Let's get out there now and fight.

Oh we will cheer for you dear Colby High.
We'll keep your banners flying in the sky.
We'll give you all we've got to help you win.
So let's get out there now and go and go and go.
We'll be so proud of you in victory.
And we will stand by you if you should lose.
If you will fight fight fight for Colby High.
Colby High -- Win this Game!

Editor's Note

The annual staff of this '67 Hillcrest wish to express the sincere hope that this yearbook will bring back many fond memories of the past year to all the students of Colby High School. Much of this annual has been revised to produce a new and different yearbook, especially for you. It has involved hours of hard work, but we think it was worth it. We have tried to bring the past to the present, and keep it for your future.

God Bless You,

Claudette Kuehling
