Dedication

We at Colby High School have been provided with a magnificent educational system. We have been endowed with a complex of buildings and a faculty that rival those of much larger cities. But just as a nation can be no greater than its people, Colby High School would be an empty, meaningless thing if it were not for its students. The students of a school lend life, meaning, and an identity to what otherwise would be a dark, empty shell with no purpose for existence. Therefore, the annual staff of Colby High School dedicates this 1968 edition of Hillcrest to you, the student body. One that has, through its participation in all phases of school activities and its demonstration of school spirit, helped make Colby High School the great institution of learning that it is.

A Year Is a Long Time - Too Long to Forget.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Ansel Messer
President

Mr. E. H. Boss

Dr. J. W. Koch
Director

The Board of Education of Colby Public Schools has the responsibility of overseeing the complete educational program of the school. They serve as a policy making body, determining the best policies to facilitate the operation of the school system.

Among their many duties are approving a budget for each school year, providing transportation for students, providing a hot lunch program, employing sufficient educational staff to accommodate the pupil population, making certain all buildings are properly equipped and maintained, as well as keeping abreast of educational happenings and trends in order to keep pace with the demands of today's education.

The Board of Education meets regularly every month and in addition has many special meetings during the year as needed.

While their duties are many and their hours long, the Colby Board of Education is pledged to providing the finest educational opportunities and advantages for the youth of the school district.

Administration

Mr. Boettcher

Mr. Boettcher received his Bachelor's Degree at W.S.U. Stevens Point and his Master's Degree at the University of Wyoming. As the executive officer of the School Board, he submits budgets and plans the spending of money in our district.

Mr. Boettcher also carries out the policies dictated by the School Board.

Mr. Schwartz

Mr. Schwartz accepted his duties as principal at Colby High School early last summer. He received his Bachelor's Degree at St. Cloud State University in Minnesota and his Master's Degree at the University of Minnesota. As principal, his major duties are the following: supervision of the Junior and Senior High School; development of the curriculum; bus transportation; and the unpleasant, but necessary, task of discipline. Mr. Schwartz comments that he enjoys working with the students and faculty of Colby High School.

Mrs. Hibbard

As supervisor of the elementary grades, Mrs. Hibbard's duties vary. She sets up parent-teacher conferences, coordinates curricula, and, in general, keeps classes from kindergarten to ninth grade running smoothly. Mrs. Hibbard received her Bachelor's Degree at W.S.U. Stevens Point and her Master's degree at W.S.U. Superior.

Guidance

Mr. Haavisto

As guidance counselor for the Senior High, Mr. Haavisto's services are invaluable to the students of C.H.S. His duties consist of arranging individual class schedules, testing, and of course, offering advice about college and careers to undecided seniors.

Students waiting to see Mr. Haas or Mr. Haavisto can browse and enjoy the comforts of their new waiting room.

Mr. Haas

Junior High School students with questions and problems can come to Mr. Haas for answers. In addition to his duties as Junior High Guidance Counselor, Mr. Haas is also assistant principal. In this position his main jobs are scheduling of classes and handling the federal program.

Secretarial Staff

MRS. WILDE

Mrs. Wilde is the voice you most often hear coming over the P.A. system with the announcements. She has worked here at CHS for two years and she handles many jobs such as taking care of locker keys, schedules, and lunch tickets. When asked if there was any comment she had about her work, she quickly replied, "There's never a dull moment."

MISS MILLER

Following her graduation from Colby High School, Chris became a secretary in the Colby School District. Among her varied duties as district secretary to Mr. Boettcher are: paying bills, taking care of the payroll, filling out state reports, sending district letters, and preparing a report for the school board each month. Chris has a beautiful new office this year and says she likes it very much.

MISS CLINE

Starting her first full year as secretary at Colby High School, Miss Cline's duties include checking attendance records, selling lunch tickets, taking care of insurance, and making announcements. Miss Cline has previously worked at the Elementary School, the Marshfield Clinic, and the Radke Insurance Agency.

Maintenance Engineers

Alex Hilber, Gramps Schultz, and Royal Awe are the men that keep our school building in smooth running order. Always ready with a quick smile or a good word, they are among the most liked people on the Colby High School staff.

Culinary Wizards

With this year's new kitchen facilities, cooking should be simplified; but then feeding 700 hungry students is never easy. The cooks that serve us so faithfully are Mrs. Ida Farning, Mrs. Helen Brehm, Mrs. Laura Lenhard, Mrs. Evelyn Herman, and Mrs. Marjorie Brehm.

CLASS
'68

Mr. Nomady, Mrs. Caskey, Mr. Haavisto, and Mr. Webb are the senior class advisors. The officers are Mary Lamont, secretary; Gerald Brecke, president; Helen Denzin, vice-president; and Ann Umhoefer, treasurer.

Hillcrest Production - Organized Bedlam

If she works as hard next week, we might even let her use a desk.

The Annual Staff consists of typists, solicitors, copy writers, and photographers who work throughout the entire year to put out the HILLCREST. In addition, the staff has an invaluable advisor. Without the dedicated help of Mr. Jarzin, it would have been impossible to produce this yearbook.

Work for the new annual first gets into full swing when representatives of the staff attend a yearbook workshop. As the pictures are taken, layouts are planned, and copy is written throughout the school year, the annual gradually begins to take shape. Finally, with the completion of the last page, the staff is able to breathe a sigh of relief.

By sponsoring a magazine drive and a coat check for school activities, the Annual Staff has been able to raise money for this organization.

Our fearless leader hard at work.

Hey girls, this isn't the way to make a deadline.

The heights some people will go to get a good picture.

Well, look who's got the dummy book!

You mean we really get OUR pictures taken?

"Hornet's Buzz"

The purpose of the staff is to keep the students informed of school activities. The club, advised by Mr. Nelson work hard to put out a newspaper several times a year. Chiefs of staff are Susie Mueller, Editor; Sue Leichtnam, Assistant Editor; Don Gipp, Sports Editor; Betty Dearth, Exchange Editor; Carol Gottschalk, Typist; Dave Grewe and Jerry Flink, Publishers.

Not another mistake.

Why did I forget to put the paper in?

I just can't stand people looking over my shoulder.

Students check card catalogue in the new library for necessary information.

Library Club "Fresh from the Shelves"

Busy librarians chew their fingernails while trying to decide on a change in policy.

Student librarians worked harder than ever this year keeping books and magazines in their proper places in the new library. The librarians' duties also include checking out books, magazines, and newspapers.

Each year the girls sponsor a Christmas party and a Mother-Daughter Banquet. New officers are installed during the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The officers installed this year were: Joceil Weix, President; Pam Firnstahl, Vice-president; Ann Imhoefer, Secretary-treasurer; and Linda Haas, Reporter. Mrs. Tennis and Mrs. Umhoefer are the club's advisors.

Masquers Curtain Call

This year the Masquer's Club presented three plays. Cries of laughter for THE UGLY DUCKLING, directed by Fran Waldhart, followed the cries of terror heard during THE LOTTERY, a dramatic satire directed by Masquer's advisor, Mrs. Schwartz. PILLOW TALK was also presented for the delight and amusement of a packed house.

The officers of Masquer's are: Fran Waldhart, President; Linda Weirsig, Vice-president; Donna Frome, Secretary; and Chuck Krueger, Treasurer.

Suspense builds . . . . .

"It's not the way it used to be. People ain't the same way they used to be."

"What is it which has four legs and mews like a cat?" . . . "A dog."

Tryouts for PILLOW TALK, a sophisticated comedy.

Up, up, and away . . .

"Well, your Majesty, her beauty certainly is elusive."

DAR

This year's Daughter of the American Revolution Award went to Mary Lamont. Of three candidates selected by the senior class, the faculty chose one girl for the award. Leadership, dependability, and patriotism were the basis for the choice.

VOD

Jim Staffell is the recipient of the Voice of Democracy Award from CHS for the second consecutive year. His speech, entitled "Freedom's Challenge," was taped and entered in the district contest. The annual Voice of Democracy contest is sponsored by the local Veterans of Foreign Wars and is open to juniors and seniors. Jim received a twenty-five dollar savings bond for his efforts.

Betty Crocker

Who's going to be the best homemaker in CHS? According to the results of the Betty Crocker Homemaking Test, it's Mary Pope. By receiving the highest score on the test, Mary was chosen to be presented with the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award, and is now eligible to compete in the district contest.

National Honor Society

To qualify as a member of the National Honor Society, a student must show the qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and service. It should be the goal of every CHS student to achieve the honor of becoming a member of the National Honor Society.

Badger State

Badger State is an annual event sponsored by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. Its delegates learn the fundamentals of their city, county, and state governments through participation in meetings and mock elections. They also have the opportunity to listen to excellent speakers and to learn to solve the complex problems of today. Delegates are chosen according to their scholastic ability, leadership, integrity, and loyalty. The 1967 Badger Boy's State was held in Ripon during the week of June 10-17. Badger Girl's State was held in Madison on the same days. This year's delegates from Colby were Mary Lee Brunker, Jim Staffeil, and Gene Reineking.

"No Mr. Caskey! Please don't shake the ladder!!"

Our Student Council at Work

The purpose of the Student Council is to act as a liaison between the faculty and the student body. During the past year it has sponsored school activities and has rewritten the "out-dated" constitution. The Council has been striving to gain the respect of the teachers and the students to become a more important part of the school scene.

"Uncle Sam wants YOU!!"

Our Student Council at work!!

Mr. Nomady works diligently, helping to take pictures for the Annual.

Photography Club: Mr. Nomady-Advisor; Cliff Schjoneman, John Boss, Don Schmid, Richard Feldbruegge, Mike Schultz, Jerry Michlig, Larry Oemichen, Richard Bartnik, Pete Neitzel, Gene Reineking, and Randy Westberg.

Photography Club - Click, Flash!

The Photography Club, started three years ago, has expanded rapidly. This year most of the pictures seen in the Annual were taken by the members of this club. The students learn the proper way to take and develop good pictures.

The Projectionists' Club, an affiliate of the Photography Club, was started this year. Its members gain experience operating audio-visual equipment.

Taking pictures, Randy???

Don't hide, Pete. YOU shouldn't be camera shy!!

Smile, folks! He may be after you!

Future Homemakers

Some hard-working FHA'ers take a few minutes to relax during the district rally.

"Hey! What's this—an electric switchblade??!"

of America

The Future Homemakers of America are on the go, always involved in some interesting and challenging activity. Every year FHA'ers work with the FFA, collecting old toys and turning them into dazzling new Christmas gifts for needy children in the community.

"Don't bounce down those steps!" is a familiar sound heard in the gym as the girls are practicing for the Spring Style Show, an annual FHA event. Throughout the year the club sells cookbooks, caramel apples, and sponsors bake sales to raise the money needed for the FFA-FHA Toboggan Party and the much-remembered spring trip.

FHA officers for the 67-68 school year are: President Dolores Helfert, Vice-president Patti Kadonsky, Secretary Helen Denzin, Treasurer Kathy Stettgen, Historian Joyce Dums, Parliamentarian Julie Poehnelt, Recreation Leader Barbara Podevels, Reporter Donna Guth. ## Backers of CHS

"Go, Fight, Win!" Sound familiar? Well, it should. This is just one of the many cheers heard from the CHS Pep Club members urging their team on to victory.

This year Pep Club has adopted a new system which allows sophomores to be eligible for next years Pep Club by accumulating points. Each year the club sponsors a Homecoming Weekend, which includes Skit Night and a Homecoming dance. One of the highlights of the last fun weeks of school is the Pep Club picnic.

The officers this year are: President Helen Denzin, Vice-President Paula Anderson, Secretary Patti Kadonsky, Treasurer Linda Jochimsen. The club advisors are Mr. Subera and Miss Herman.

Brimming with juicy gossip, the Hornet Booster brings to CHS students the latest news about the teams and teens. Assuming the role of Hortense Hornet is the editor, Dave Grewe. Gene Rieneking reports on the athletic events, and Donna Frome serves as typist.

Under the direction of Mr. James Rickard the Colby Senior High Band is able to participate in many activities. Beginning in the fall the band can be seen practicing for their half-time performances at home games. The rhythm of the drums echoes in the gym during pep sessions as the band does its part in creating the spirit so necessary for a winning team. Twice a year the band practices to successfully put on two concerts, a Christmas concert and a spring concert. Toward spring, individual instrumentalists participate in a solo and ensemble contest, each working for the ultimate goal of state competition. The band also competes with other bands in this area at a music festival. Various times throughout the year the band marches in parades, led by a high-stepping majorette and twirlers. A candy sale before Valentine's Day provides money to sponsor students at a summer music camp, and if we're lucky a band trip.

Band officers for the present school year are: President Sue Justman, Vice-President and Librarian Barbara Messer, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Lee Brunker.

Band

Leading the band in street parades and marches during football games are the high-strutting twirlers and majorette. The girls are: Kathy Nomady, Donna Koffarnus, Connie Firnstahl, Cheryl Gosse, Mary Lee Brunner, and Pattie Kadonsky.

I wish we could all get together--after all it's only the scale.

Crooning Chorus

Who's that singing in the theatre?" Yes, you're right. It's our chorus students practicing for their concert. Miss Beaudette, the new chorus instructor has been working hard to keep her chorus in top shape. Along with her, the students are trying to keep themselves in good singing condition. All in all, this years chorus should prove to be a very outstanding one.

Throughout the week, the football team was spurred on to victory by a variety of visual reminders.

After being presented with the game football, our Homecoming king certainly had a right to be proud.

"Silhouettes"

The week of September 19-23 was one of frenzied activity as halls were decorated and skits planned. On Thursday night skits were presented, and we watched the bonfire—the biggest and best ever. The evening ended with a snake-dance and visions of a homecoming victory.

On Friday night our Hornets defeated a tough Neillsville team by the score of 18-6 and set the stage for a wonderful evening. The gym was decorated in a brilliant array of brown, orange, and gold streamers, and the theme "Silhouettes" was carried out in silhouettes of football players. Music was provided by the Trademarks. The highlight of the evening arrived at 10:30, as Mike Schultz and Suzanne Zuber were crowned King and Queen of the 1967 Homecoming.

The dancers at this year's Prom had to dance around a tall pagoda, the center of attraction of the decorations for Shangri-La.

Highlighting the evening, Bill Trump, last year's Prom king, crowned Dan Bender King of the 1967 Junior Prom.

Shangri-La

"Don't blame us. We don't make it; we only serve it!"

Now look what they're doing! And after all the work it took to put it up!!

Jimmy Stieber and his orchestra provided the music as couples crossed a quaint arch bridge and caught their first glimpse of the oriental paradise of Shangri-La. The date was April 29, and the long anticipated Junior Prom was finally a reality. An authentic looking, silver, Japanese pagoda stood majestically in the center of the gym as the huge crowd enjoyed the lavish splendor of the evening. A lofty false ceiling of lilac and orchid, a wall of glittering beaded curtains, and multi-colored Japanese lanterns helped carry out the theme. Tables were decorated with delicate, lilac, wax centerpieces and punch was served from a rickshaw by charming Japanese maidens. The evening reached its climax with the grand march and the crowning of King Dan and Queen Kathy. The enchantment ended all too soon, but memories of their brief visit to Shangri-La will be cherished by all who attended.

Senior Snow Ball

"Sleigh Bells" was the theme of the 1968 Senior Snow Ball, held of Saturday, January 20. The gym was decorated accordingly with a gaily-painted sleigh against a background of flocked pine trees. Completing the theme were tiny white bells, scattered throughout the gym. The music of the Don Cheseboro Orchestra added to everyone's enjoyment. The climax of the evening was reached at 10:00 P.M., as King Don and Queen Patti were crowned.

Highlighting the evening was the Grand March.

Under the crepe paper sky, the couples dance into the night.

The teachers, too, were among those who enjoyed an evening at the Senior Snow Ball.

Couples are seen as they dance to the dreamy music of the Don Cheseboro Orchestra.

Activities

Although a large portion of each week is spent in school, weekends, too, are an important part of our year. Dances, parties, and a variety of get-togethers provide fun and entertainment, bridging that long gap from 3:21 on Friday afternoons until a sunshiny Monday morning rolls around again.

This season was a rather unsuccessful one for the Colby Hornets. Due to relative inexperience, the team could not put together consistent performances, and as a consequence, they won only one game.

As always after an unsuccessful season, one can only look forward to the next year. Here at Colby High, the future is indeed bright. The starting five will lose only one player, and the three juniors on this years team should have the experience and the skills to come through with a fine season. There are also quite a few promising young players coming up from the "B" team.

In the regional tournaments held in Schofield, the brothers, Mark and Wayne Leonhard, walked off with first place finishes at 112 and 103 pounds respectively, while Wayne Sterzinger advanced to the sectional with a second place finish in the 127 pound class.

This year's wrestling team had a slow start, but finished the season by sending three boys to the sectional tournaments. A lack of experience could be blamed for the slow start, but hustle and determination are two reasons for a strong finish. Coach Teska will have a strong nucleus for next year's team.

1967-'68 Matmen

Hey, that tickles!

Insert foot in mouth.

Senior High Cindermen

Cindermen in Fifth

Gosh, those CHS boys are fast! That is—the members of the track team. Well, would you believe . . . ? The team consisted of eleven boys who participated in shot put, hurdles, discus, and sprints. The team finished the season tied for fifth place in the conference.

Tarzan of the Cindermen!

Hope it's soft!

Let's get 'um.

They got me!

Swimming Arrives with a Splash

Swimming has become a popular sport with the students at CHS since the new pool has been completed. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Gammel and Miss Herman, would-be swimmers have been instructed in the skill of keeping afloat. With ply. ed. classes, lifesaving classes, and recreational swimming, the pool is constantly being used by the people of the school district.

All right you guys, this is a stick-up.

Who pulled the plug?!

"A" Squad

The "A" Squad cheerleaders are Donna Frome, Lois Sommer, Paula Anderson, Faye Drueger, and Nancy Goeltz.

"B" Squad

The "B" Squad consists of: Julie Scidmore, Gerri Hilber, Judy Mueller, Joyce Dums, Cheryl Gosse, and Carol Lenz.

Wrestling Cheerleaders

Carol Bauer, Kathy Schraufnagel, Joyce Staab, Linda Jochimsen, and Margaret Fitense form the Wrestling Squad cheerleaders.

Hey, what do I do with it? It just ... er, ah ... messed up my hand.

Physics is fun, fun, fun!

Snaps Around School

A guy's got to shift for himself or he'd starve.

Sign him up, Coach.

Think you have everybody?

It's the only place the poor guy can get some sleep.

Editors' Note

The Hillcrest staff of '68 hope the students of CHS will recall fond memories as they look back through this annual. We have endeavored to capture in these pages all of the wonders and blunders of the past school year. One year truly is too long to forget. Each new friendship or experience contributes to our treasury of past moments. We hope, then, that this annual will preserve the past for the future.

God bless you,
