Foreword

The faces of Colby High School are many and varied, but they reflect you, the student body. Yesterday a happy face, today saddened, tomorrow a tearful but eager face meets the world with meek anticipations.

This yearbook has attempted to portray in pictures and words your lives as you have lived them during this school year. If a student, perusing his yearbook, can place himself in a scene or can enjoy an accomplishment, the yearbook has succeeded. Also, if the actions in the school by students, teachers and administrators are correctly pictured, then the yearbook has succeeded.

Mr. George Kadonsky

Mr. W. C. Pinter

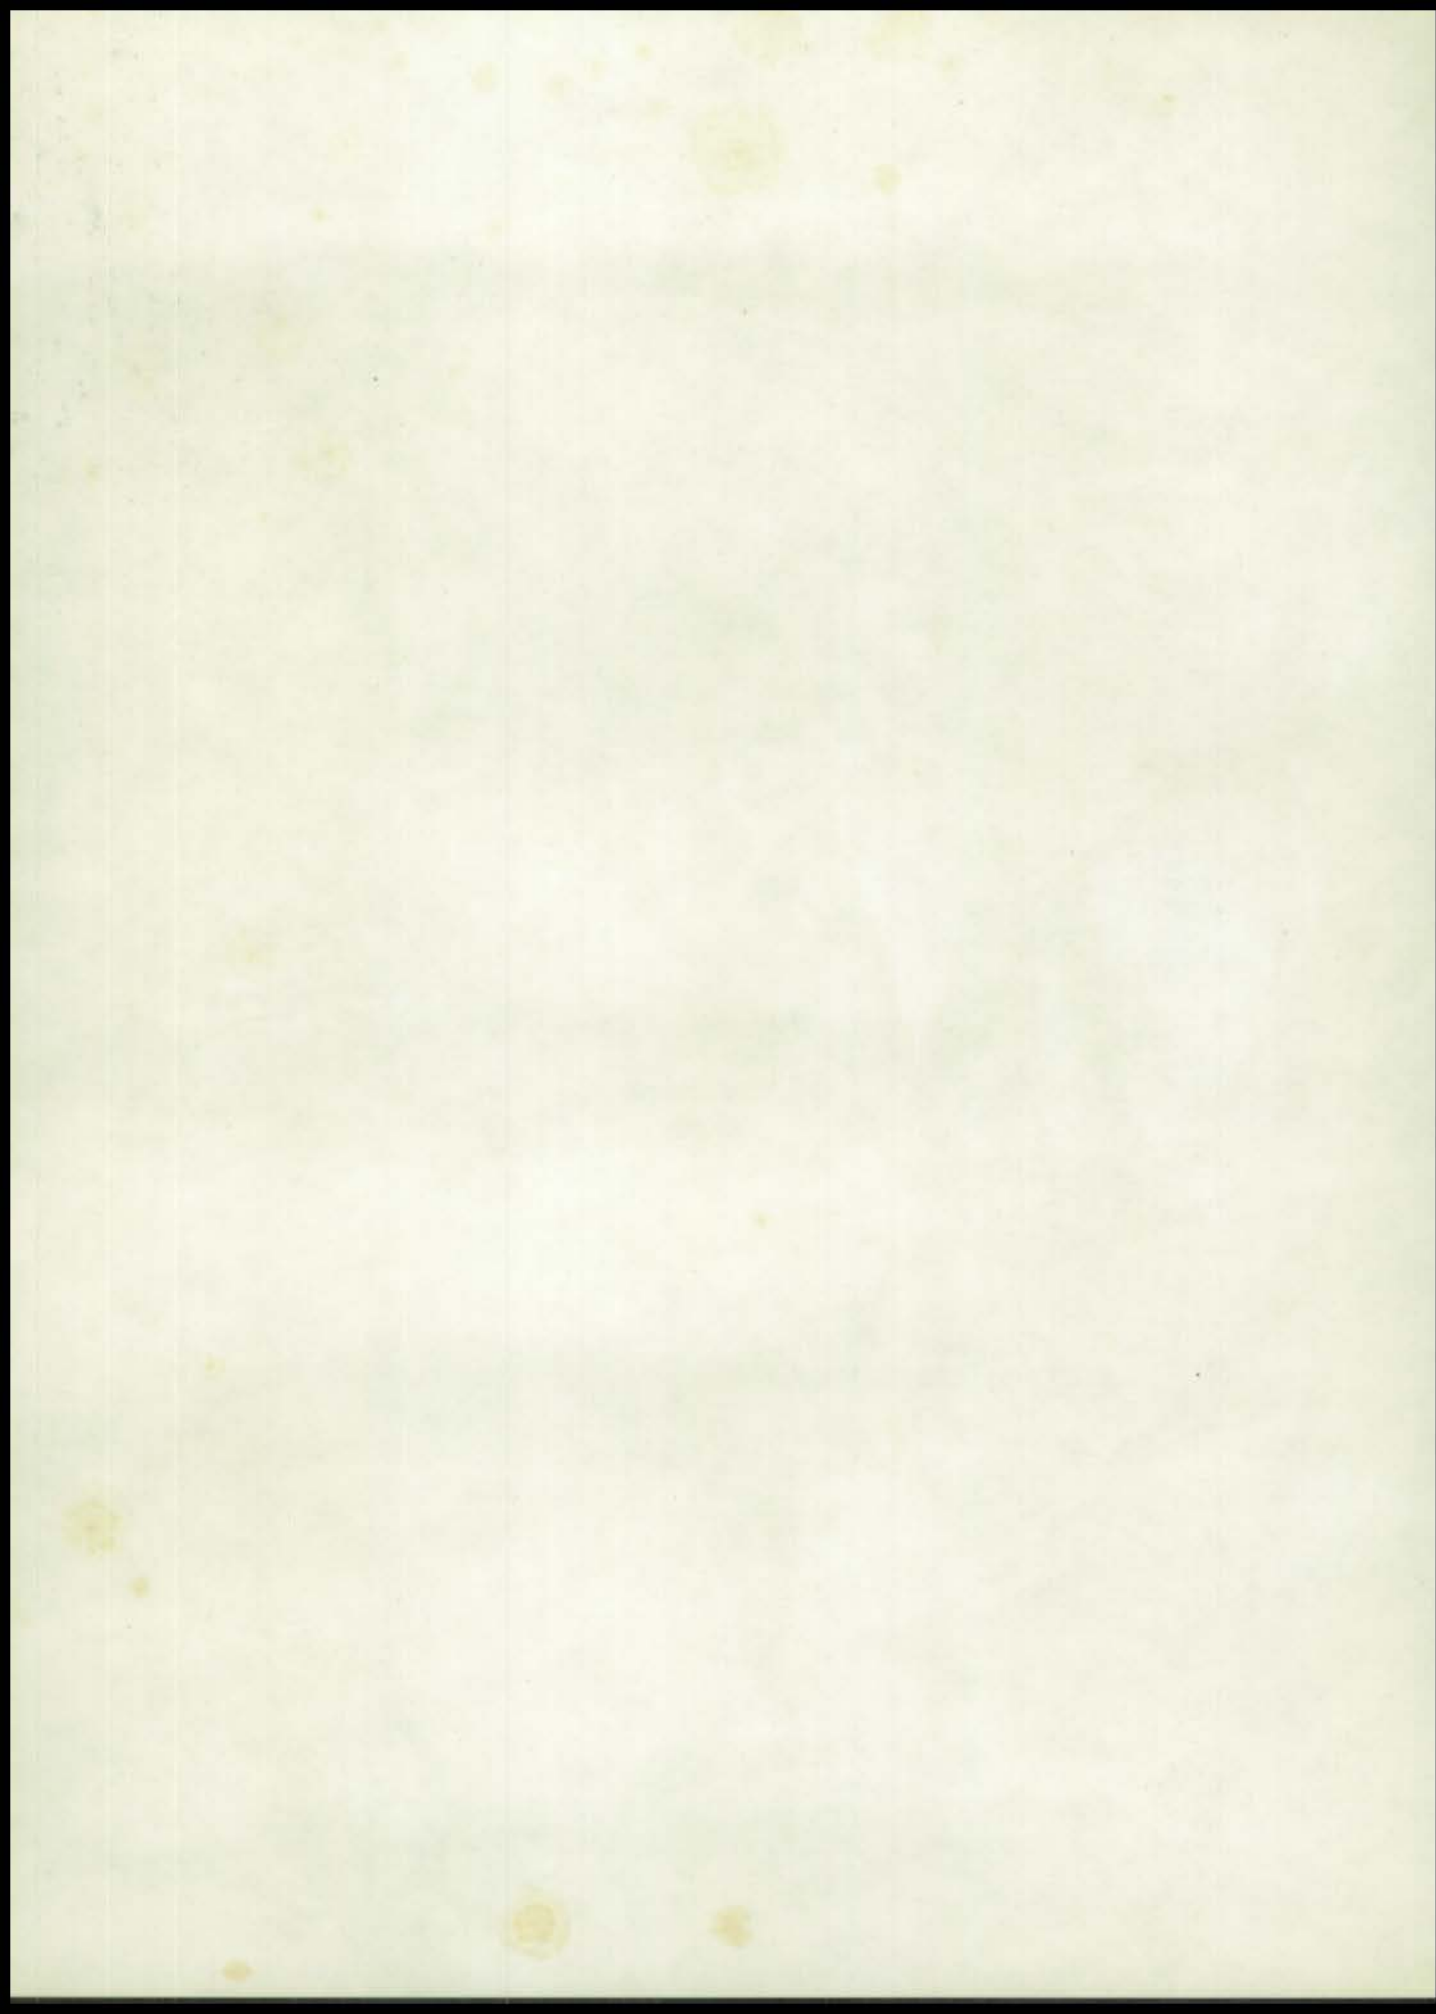

Mr. Calvin Schultz

In addition to their routine duties as policy makers for the Colby school district, the 68-69 Board of Education has provided the junior-senior high school with: a course in electronics, a course in psychology, and a freshman speech class. Also, additional guidance was made available for the junior high school students. The video-tape recorder which was purchased has added a great deal to virtually all areas of the school.

Secretarial Staff

Employed at CHS in '68, Mrs. Jacobson is quite familiar with the school and its students. She handles her various responsibilities such as taking care of activity and organization money, locker keys, and selling lunch tickets, with ease.

It's the cheery sound of Mrs. Weiler's voice over the P.A. system which greets the students of CHS each morning and afternoon as she reads the school announcements. Starting her first year at Colby High School, Mrs. Weiler's new duties include: recording attendance, taking care of insurance, and selling lunch tickets.

Chris Miller has succeeded from a graduate of CHS, to the secretary of the Colby School District. As secretary for the district and Mr. Boettcher, Chris pays the bills, handles the payroll, fills out state reports, and prepares a monthly report for the school board.

Yearbook Staff Records Memories

The Hillcrest staff devoted much time and effort to publishing an annual of which we hope the student body can be proud. After representatives attended a yearbook workshop in Eau Claire, the staff spent many evenings and Saturdays planning layouts, writing copy, and cropping pictures under the guidance of our adviser, Mr. Jarzin. The Photography Club helped the staff by taking group pictures and candids around the school.

The advertising committee consisted of Janice Brenner, Sheila Gorke, Sharon Cook, Wanda Underwood, Judy Hedler, Pam Firnstahl, Kathy Jacobson, and Chris Firnstahl.

Suzy, A Welcome Addition to CHS

Thanks to the support of the students and adults of the Colby AFS chapter, Jackie Kocian was able to spend the summer months with her Turkish parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gengiz Cirpan, her sister, Pakize, and her younger brother, Atilla. Jackie said her summer was a rewarding experience in many ways. First, she made lasting friendships with both American and Turkish students; and second, she visited many famous and historical sites she had dreamed of seeing. Jackie was most impressed by the understanding that grows when one lives with people whose culture, language and religion are different from those one is accustomed to living with. The AFS Club often refers to a quotation which has a special meaning for Jackie, "Walk together, talk together, Oh ye peoples of the earth; then and only then, shall ye have peace."

Jackie Spends Summer in Turkey

Our foreign exchange student during the 68-69 school year is Azucena Portugal, a native of Quito, Ecuador. Suzy, as she is known around school, has two sisters and one brother. Her father is the head of the radio and television section of the USIF. Suzy's mother works as a teacher at the Rosa Zarate School.

Suzy enjoys school here at CHS and also American music. All the sports hold her attention and interest, but especially swimming, tennis, and basketball.

AFS Initiates Penny Drive

The American Field Service or the A.F.S. was very active this year selling paper back books and school supplies. Every Friday the A.F.S. collected pennies which are used in financing the A.F.S. projects. On the Friday before Christmas vacation all the pennies that were collected were donated to Suzy Portugal to help pay for a phone call to her parents in Ecuador.

The officers for this year were: President, Jackie Kocian, Vice-President, Suzy Portugal, and Secretary-Treasurer, Linda Weirsig.

Linda Weirsig finds Dan Dums eager to contribute.

Masquers' Club Promotes

Major Productions: Lilies of the Field and

Cheaper by the Dozen

"And you think YOU'VE got problems!"

"Oh no, not again!"

The Masquers' Club presented two full length plays, TWELVE ANGRY MEN and LILIES OF THE FIELD, in which Chuck Krueger earned an award for his portrayal of Homer Smith. Later productions were CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN and YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU.

In the fall, the Masquers' sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Besides presenting plays, the Masquers' also went to see stage presentations of plays given by Stevens Point, Marshfield, and Eau Claire State Universities. Among these plays were: THE FIREBUG, ANTIGONE, CARNIVAL, J. B., and A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE.

Entertainment Through Drama

"Hey! Am I on Candid Camera?"

"Old Mother sure sets a poor table."

"I don't think I want to watch this."

"Yes, this is a family, but it's NO picnic."

"Let's have a hoo, ray, ray . . . Oh, hello, Mr. Gilbreth."

"Do you know what happens to girls who wear silk stockings?"

Ipsissima Verba-New Organization

All students, grades 9-12, were urged to participate in the forensic contest. The first elimination contest was held during the last week of February. "A" winners were given the opportunity to advance to district competition.

By participating on the local level, contestants automatically became probationary members of the forensic club, Ipsissima Verba, or "the very words."

It is hoped that through participation in speaking activities of this nature, the student will gain speaking skills as well as the poise and confidence necessary to aid him throughout his life.

The officers for this year were: President Barb Podevels, Vice-president Tonnie Miller, Secretary Nancy Goeltz, and Treasurer Joyce Tesmer. Mrs. Haas served as the adviser.

Enthusiastic members of the forensics club put on a skit for homecoming.

Pam, Barb, Maribeth, and Margaret show their interest in the new club, Ipsissima Verba.

Council Voices Ideas Of Student Body

Under the guidance of Mr. Caskey, the Student Council attempted to further teacher-student relationships at CHS. During the 68-69 school year, the organization scheduled meetings to be held during activity periods and dates for school dances. The Council sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins dance in the fall. Mock elections were held prior to the November elections to give students the opportunity to participate in the processes of our nation.

Vice-president Vern Rankel, Secretary Nancy Goeltz, and Treasurer Barb Podevels assisted President Chuck Krueger. '69 Council members were Laurie Brecke, Joyce Lenz, Lana Marcott, Phil Waldhart, Dave Becherer, Jim Vorland, Mark Zuber, Julianne Scidmore, Peggy Harris, and Blaine Caskey.

Representatives Form Mock Government

In June of 1968, Pam Firnstahl and Barb Meyer were Colby's representatives to Badger Girls' State in Madison and Jim Vorland, Emery Neitzel, and Gary Waldhart were Colby's representatives to Badger Boys' State in Ripon. These people spent eight eventful days learning about the various facets of the government. Over 1000 students from throughout the state participated in this annual event. Everyone had a hectic schedule, but somehow there was always enough time for a midnight snack and furtive gab sessions after "lights out." When the week came to a close, the students looked forward to seeing their families again, but they also looked back nostalgically to the new friends they had to leave behind.

DAR

Pam Firnstahl received this year's Daughter of the American Revolution Award. The faculty chose Pam from the group of girls who were nominated. The choice was made on the basis of leadership, dependability, and patriotism.

Voice of Democracy . . .

The local winner of the 68-69 Voice of Democracy contest was Mary Beth Schumacher, a junior at CHS. The annual contest, sponsored by the local Veterans of Foreign Wars, was open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. After Mary received the local award, a $25 savings bond, her speech was taped and sent to the district competition.

National Honor Society . . .

Leadership, Scholarship, Character, Service

Members of the National Honor Society were selected by the faculty for their qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Officers elected by the group for the 68-69 school year were President Gary Waldhart, Vice-president Donna Lamont, Treasurer Sue Leichtnam, and Secretary Barb Meyer. The advisers were Mrs. Caskey and Mr. Steffen.

C. H. S. Librarians

Many hard-working librarians were rewarded for their time and efforts at Christmas during the library club swimming party.

The officers this year were: President Nancy Goeltz, Vice-president Barb Podevels, Secretary-Treasurer Chris Firnstahl, and Reporter Debby Luchterhand. The officers for the next year are traditionally installed at the annual Library Club Banquet, which is held in the spring. Mrs. Tennis and Mrs. Umhoefer are the advisers.

Mrs. Tennis checks the morning mail.

Hornet's Buzz

The Hornet's Buzz, the newspaper of the Colby High students, comes out once a month. It contains factual articles obtained by the reporters, gossip obtained by those who know where to pick up these choice bits of news, and jokes by the witty people of the staff. Editor, Sue Leichtnam and assistant editor, Ken Kops head the production of the newspaper. Mrs. Gumz and Mrs. Treutel are the advisers. The staff works hard to put out a paper that they hope the students will like.

FFA Promotes Safety

Members of the FFA have undertaken many projects throughout the past year. Early in the year, the boys sponsored a professional wrestling match. The club conducted a safe corn harvest campaign and a safe tractor operating campaign. Together with the Lions and the FHA, the boys sponsored a Christmas toy drive. They had a parent-son banquet and went to a professional baseball game in the spring.

Center and Bottom Right: Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Nelson along with members of the FFA enjoy their tobogganing party.

Bottom Far Right: Receiving the State Farmer Award, Gerald Brecke, won the highest award in the state FFA. To win this award, Gerry had to have the most organized farming program as well as the most knowledge of his program. Gerry was chosen from 15,334 boys throughout the state.

Junior Dairymen

Trophies which were awarded at the state dairy show.

W. J. D. A.

Colby Junior Dairymen showed their initiative and resourcefulness by participating in many events. They exhibited cattle at the state dairy show, at which trophies were awarded, sent representatives to the state convention, and hosted a district meeting. Some of the boys participated in an extemporaneous speaking contest and a demonstration contest. Dan Bender, a member of the club was elected state president. Officers of the Colby chapter during the 1968-69 year were: President Randy Stockwell, Vice-president Jerome Heindl, Secretary Mark Zuber, Treasurer Leon Dommer, and Director Harvey Maxam. Mr. Steffen acted as adviser.

Top Sports Participants Comprise Lettermen's Club

The good hot coffee and tasty hot dogs that sustained many of the CHS backers through the chilly football games were part of the variety of refreshments that the Lettermen's Club sold. The basketball and wrestling fans also enjoyed the friendly service of the club at these sports events.

The Lettermen again sponsored their annual basketball tournament for all sixth, seventh, and eighth grade boys in the Colby school district.

"This popcorn is just great!"—"Better add a little more salt though, we've got a lot of pop to sell."

Future Homemakers Discuss Food, Fun, and Family Life

Homemaker of Tomorrow

Kathleen Jacobson has been named the 1969 Homemaker of Tomorrow at Colby High School. Her award was won on the basis of the Betty Crocker Homemaker Test. The test was given to any senior girl who was interested. Kathy's award includes a silver charm and a cookbook. She is now eligible to compete in the district contest.

Active Participation Is Rewarded

During the 68-69 school year, the ninety members of the Future Homemakers of America participated actively in many worthwhile projects. Money was raised through the sales of Stanley products, greeting cards, Christmas candles, and cookbooks. The profits from these projects were used to finance the long-awaited trip in May and the FHA-FFA Toboggan Party.

As Christmas endeavors, the FHA'ers baked and packaged cookies which were sent to area servicemen in Vietnam. The girls also worked with the FFA gathering and repairing toys for needy children. In the spring, the annual style show was held. The girls modeled outfits which they made themselves.

FHA officers for the past year were: President Sue Leichtnam, Vice-president Joyce Seefeldt, Secretary-Reporter Donna Guth, Treasurer Kris Feldbrugge, and Point-Secretary Paulette Rankel. The advisers for the Future Homemakers of America were Mrs. Subera and Miss Osterloth.

Girls Participate in Various Sports

Members of the Girls' Athletic Association spent many hours after school competing in various sports. This club provided an opportunity for the sports-minded girl to participate in the competition of her choice. Officers of the club were President Ellen Giese, Vice-president Donna Lamont, Secretary Charolette Fricke, and Treasurer Cheryl Gosse. Miss Brink, the club adviser, was kept busy organizing and supervising the activities.

GAA-Girls Learn New Co-operation

Wanda, you have to move to get the ball.

School Spirit Boosted . . .

Herbie Hornet

Up and down and up and down,
Gee this is hard on the knees!

This year, the Pep Club again sold sweatshirts and beanies to loyal Hornet backers. It also sponsored the homecoming festivities which included the skit night, bonfire, and dance.

The Pep Club is composed of juniors and seniors. Students must accumulate fifty points to gain membership. Juniors and seniors must acquire thirty points to retain theirs. The band members were awarded twenty points for performing at games and pep sessions. Pep Club members provided important support for the football, basketball, and wrestling teams of CHS.

The officers were: Jim Vorland, President; Greg Gorke, Vice-president; Barb Podevels, Secretary; and Sharon Cook, Treasurer. Mr. Subera and Miss Rolloff were the advisers.

Sweatshirts and Beanies Sold . . .

"They should really 'sock' the points on us for this one."

"Seniors, what's your battle cry?
VITC . . . no, VICO . . . no. Oh, forget it!"

Photography And Projectionists'

"If you want anything done around here, you've got to do it yourself!"

"If you move once more, you're dead!"

"This recording will self-destruct in five seconds."

You mean to tell me that you took this picture all by yourselves!

Phew, it's hot in there!!

Projectionists Use Latest Equipment

This year, the audio-visual aides department acquired a new video-tape recorder. The members of the Projectionists' Club use this modern piece of equipment to film the marching band, football and basketball games, and classroom activities. The projectionists also splice tapes and operate and repair movie projectors.

The Photography Club works with the Hillcrest staff, taking, developing, and printing the pictures necessary for the production of the annual.

Emery Neitzel is the President of the Photography and Projectionists' Club. Mr. Nomady is the club's adviser.

Colby Chorus Has a Busy Year

The Colby chorus started out a busy year by presenting the school's first musical, "Jeanie." The production revolved around many charming southern belles and gallant young gentlemen. Sue Leichtnam and Bob Ludwig had the leading roles of Jeannie and Dennis.

The Christmas season was highlighted by the Christmas concert and caroling in the halls. Both events brought a little Christmas spirit into the lives of the students and the faculty.

Triple Trio

Several events that made this year a busy one for the triple trio were: singing for the Senior Citizens of Unity, the Christmas concert, and the music festival.

Participating in this year's triple trio were: Joan Weiler, Debby Luchterhand, Chris Firnstahl, Sue Leichtnam, Barb Meyer, Alice Courtney, Pam Firnstahl, Barb Messer, and Judy Hedler.

Jeannie—An Operetta

Bob and Sue portray the happy couple as the operetta ends.

Lucifer and Phyllis, played by Jim and Barb, added a note of humor to the production.

The Chorus Contributes to the Christmas Festivities

Grouped in the deserted study hall, the chorus "gets in good voice" before the Christmas concert.

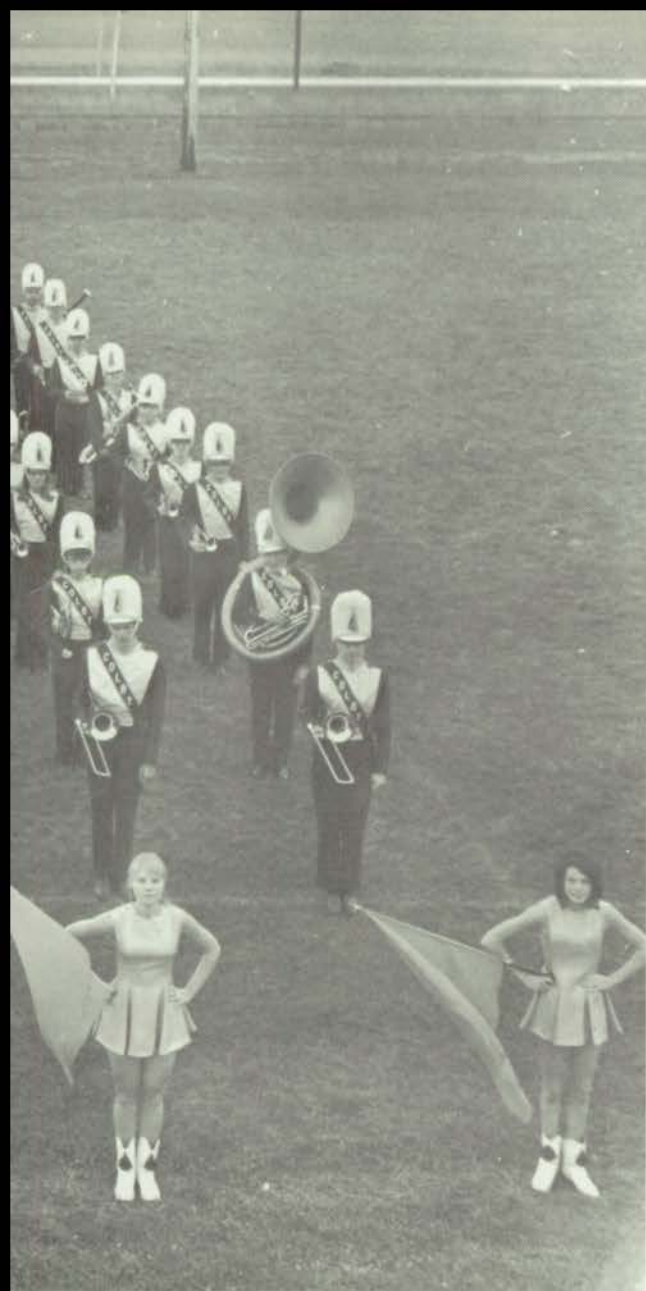

The chorus members serenade the student body with carols at the pep fest.

CHS Band Sounding Off

This year, the CHS Hornet band again entertained the loyal Colby fans during the half-times of all of the home games. "A Word From the Sponsor" featured many popular tunes played while the band was grouped in appropriate formations. Giant eyes followed imaginary girls during "Music to Watch Girls By." During "Up, Up, and Away," exhaust trails, created by the use of fire extinguishers, made the airplane seem to be flying high among the clouds.

Lighthouse by the Sea

The stars weren't the only lights shining the night of April twenty-seventh. The "Harbor Lights" were also brightening the evening. The gymnasium was transformed into a fisherman's paradise. The spectacle was highlighted by an especially soft, napkin-stuffed model of an old-fashioned lighthouse—complete with a revolving light. Behind the Fish Bait Shed which served as the refreshment stand—the harbor mural completed the theme.

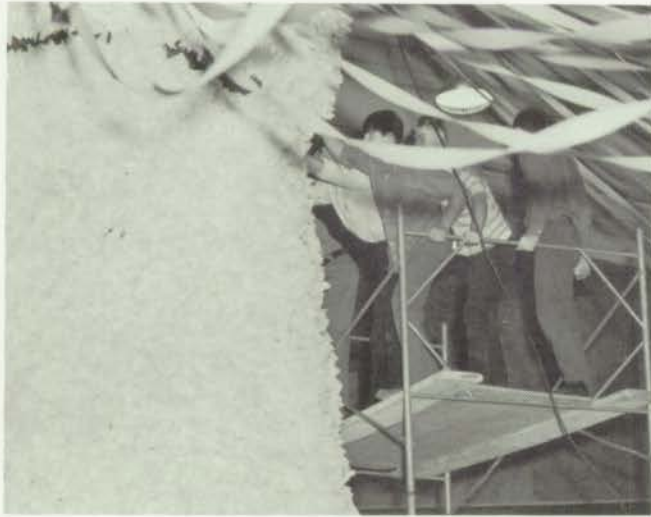

Dancing to the music of Don Cheseboro and his orchestra, everyone, enchanted by the "Harbor Lights", made memories by which they now remember their short visit to the lighthouse on the seashore.

A Hornet Victory—

Reigning over the 1968 Homecoming Week were King Bob Light and His queen Suzy Portugal with their court Sharon Bal-lerstein, Diane Podevels, Delaine Ballerstein, Faye Krueger, Gary Dums, Gary Sterzinger, Dan Andrew, and Dave Becherer. Crownbearers were Joyce Dums and Jim Stuttgen.

King Bob helps his queen cut the 1968 victory cake.

Excitement and activity were the order of the day every day from September 30 to October 4. This year's Homecoming Week included the traditional hall decorations which set the spirited pace for the rest of the week, and a skit night followed by a pep rally around the bonfire. Enthusiasm rose to a peak on Friday night when the Hornets defeated the Loyal Greyhounds 20-0. Adding a final touch to the week was the victory dance which followed the game. Homecoming was gone for another year, leaving in its path happily exhausted CHS'ers and lasting memories.

CHS gridders are recognized on the Hornets' Wall of Fame.

Roses Enhance Memorable Occasion

Don and Judy arrive for their royal evening.

Judy Mueller Crowned Queen

A large paper heart, many roses, and huge snow flakes contributed to the atmosphere of "When the Snow is on the Roses," the theme of the 1969 Senior Sno-Ball held on February 15, in the high school gym. The rhythmic sounds of the Souled Out band were soft and low as our queen Judy Mueller was crowned by King Don Schmid. As with all good things that must end, this evening was no exception; a most memorable occasion drew to a close.

Weekends Break Monotony

Equally as important as education during the day is the students life after school. Numerous opportunities for social pleasure are presented by various jobs, a gathering of the crowd, or even being by yourself. Colby students show this to be true as our photographers found them off guard while they spent their after school hours.

Boy, these underground deliveries are a pain in the neck.

That was left hand red, Cliff, NOT posterior green.

Well there's this kind; it gets your tongue all green.

Defense

Hornets Finish Fourth

The Colby High School Hornets finished the season with a 2-3 record in conference play, and a 2-6 overall record. The Colby team started the season with nine lettermen, but early injuries to key personnel, Gary Waldhart, Greg Gorke, Jim Stuttgen, and Mark Zuber, forced Coach Teska to rely on an almost totally sophomore line-up. During most of the season, Colby's starting line-up contained seven sophomores. Even though the players were young and inexperienced, the Hornets managed to defeat Loyal and Neillesville. They came close to defeating Owen only to lose during the last minute because of a desperation pass.

Some of the season's highlights were: Bob Harris's 77 yard run in the final quarter in the game against Owen-Withee; Tom Peissig's screen pass during the Greenwood game; and Emery Neitzel's fine defensive game against Neillesville as the Hornets defeated the Warriors 13-7.

Varsity Basketball

The varsity team ended the season with a 2 and 14 record. It seemed as though the Hornets just couldn't keep a consistent driving force throughout the games. The squad will suffer from the loss of four seniors, but there are quite a few promising players coming up from the JV.

Scoring laurels go to: seniors Jim Vorland with 214 total points, 13.3 average, Gary Dums with 146 total points, 9.1 average, and sophomore Jerry Eggebrecht with 133 total points, 8.3 average.

JV Basketball

JV's Gain Agility Through Experience

The Colby JV Squad completed the season with a 4 and 12 record. The squad was primarily composed of sophomores and freshmen, with many freshmen seeing a great deal of action. As a whole, the squad, was inexperienced at the outset of the season. With game experience, the team became smoother and moved the ball more efficiently.

Individual leaders were as follows: Dave Becherer with 57 field goals, 20 free throws, 85 rebounds, and 134 total points; Bob Diedrich with 56 field goals, 17 free throws, 61 rebounds, and 129 total points. Leaders in percentage of shots made were: Ken Dommer with 56.3%, Dean Haas with 43.4%, and Bob Diedrich with 42.7% in field goal shooting; Chet Pawlowicz with 64.2% and Glen Goeltz with 52.6% free throw shots.

C. H. S. Cheerleaders

Fifteen energetic cheerleaders were always seen at athletic events and pep rallies boosting the spirit of the student body and athletes. The "A" squad cheerleaders were kept busy as they cheered the football and basketball teams. The "B" squad cheerleaders heightened school spirit at all junior varsity basketball games. The wrestling cheerleaders led the cheering at all the wrestling matches.

Are you sure that's enough for both of us?

Dearest, I'm writing this letter during drafting class . . . . .

That dove not only gave me shiny dishes and soft hands but he's also our main course for dinner.

Oh boy! My cake still hasn't fallen. I knew plaster of paris would work better than flour.

School Life

"I hit him like this, then a left uppercut . . ."

One more inch, and heads will roll.

"9:30, and we're going home already!"

"I THINK it's a stop sign."

Editors' Note

There are many people to whom we, the '69 Hillcrest editors, owe a sincere thank you for their patience in producing this annual. We thank Mr. Nomady, our photography adviser, for his untiring devotion, the entire faculty for allowing periodic interruptions of classes throughout the year, the staff photographers for their valuable abilities, the community supporters through their advertising, and the student body for their candid faces. We owe a special debt of gratitude to Mr. Jarzin, our fearless leader, who gave long hours of help, guidance and "spiritual direction". And our staff must be commended for their initiative, imagination, and talents without which this yearbook could not have been made.

We hope that we have recorded the '68-'69 year completely and have made it as memorable for you as it was for us.
