ADMINISTRATION

School Board

The duties of the Board of Education are many and varied. Every phase of the educational program becomes their responsibility and also to see that each program meets the needs of the pupil population.

From their study and research evolve the policies that are the guidelines for the operation of the school district.

Evidence of the dedication of the Board of Education can be cited by the outstanding physical facilities for use by the students. The Colby District also has the most modern of educational equipment available.

The members of the Board of Education also spend a considerable amount of time attending statewide and area meetings keeping abreast of new developments in education.

ACTIVITIES

Presenting

KIDS

Annual Staff members this year were as follows: Mr. Jarzin, adviser; Jeanne Witte, Sally Schultz, Lynn Witte, Peggy Lamont, Janet Brehm, Joyce Brehm, Bill Neitzel, Karen Carlson, Raye Scheel, Wendy Awe, Sharon Cook, Nancy Bruncker, Bill Meyer, Dean Ruppert, Debby Luchterhand, Gene Ruppert, Sue Runzheimer, Debbie Rickard, Kathy Nomady.

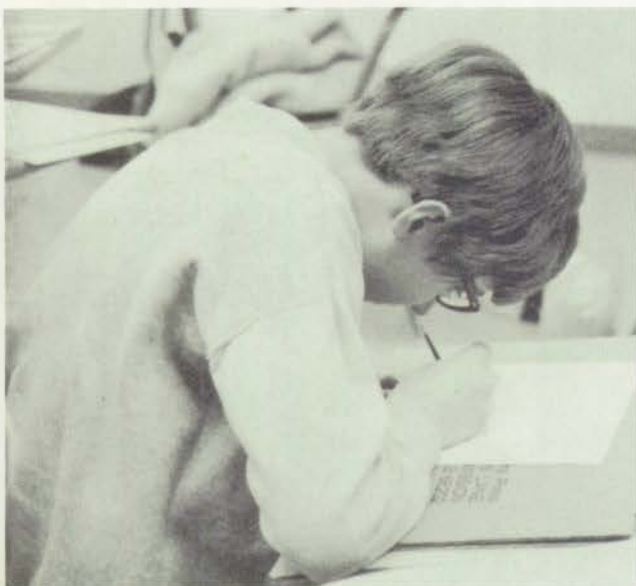

(Right) The usual Saturday lunch session acquired an air of elegance as the members grouped around the fondue pot. (Above) Photographers hold no warm place in Debbie Rickard's heart.

Hillcrest Staff Captures '70 Highlights

Work on the 1970 HILLCREST got under way after staff members attended a yearbook workshop at Eau Claire in September. With deadlines always looming a few short weeks away, the staff held meetings several nights a week and usually a day-long, "bring your lunch" affair on Saturdays. Many long and often trying hours were spent selling ads, writing and typing copy, drawing layouts, and cropping pictures. But with help from our dedicated adviser, Mr. Jarzin, lots of hard work, and good spirits, the task of producing this yearbook was accomplished once again.

Annual staff members certainly differed in their ways of working. Upper left shows Sue Runzheimer straining her eyes as she worked on the artwork for the division pages. Bill Neitzel just couldn't think of the right caption for his pictures. Above, Debby Luchterhand checked over one more page to send in on the next deadline. The girls at left look as if those early meetings weren't made for them.

Masquers Entertain Community with an

This play practice was a real SCREAM.

The Masquers' Club this year presented three full-length plays, "Belles On Their Toes," "Everybody Loves Opal," and "Little Women." Last spring the club presented "You Can't Take It With You."

The Masquers not only present plays, they also went to see plays presented at Stevens Point and Marshfield. The plays which they saw were "Antigone" and "The Visit."

This year, the Masquers' Club bought a new spotlight and obtained a charter to organize a new club, the Thespians. This club consists of Masquer members who have earned a certain number of points by participating in the productions.

The officers for the 1969-70 school year were President—Gary Sterzinger, Vice-President—Mary Ellen Schwartz, Secretary—Kathy Nomady, Treasurer—Chet Pawlowicz, and Mrs. Schwartz was adviser.

Members from the cast of "Little Women" hold another of their rehearsals.

Array of Productions

Ellen Giese played Rheba, the maid in last year's comedy.

Debbie, Bruce, and Sharon showed the fine arts practiced by this strange family in "You Can't Take It With You."

Cast and crew of "Little Women" included Barb Rannow, Donna Brown, Ellen Giese, Debbie Rickard, Paula Mohan, Maribeth Schumacher, Kathy Nomady, Jan Brenner, and Mary Ellen Schwartz.

CHS Chorus Rounds Out Music Department

Early in the year the Colby High chorus presented the musical "Brigadoon." The plot of this musical evolved around the lives of Ken Kops and Randy Stockwell, two Americans who entered the fantasy land of Brigadoon.

Along with the various new groups in chorus, many individual members sang solos and duets in the spring contest at Chippewa Falls. The complete chorus also sang at the musical festival in May.

In addition to all their other activities, the chorus entertained the public by participating in the Christmas concert and the spring and pop concerts. Miss Beaudette led the chorus.

Colby High School Marching Band

The members of the band were kept busy this year with practice for their Christmas and spring concerts, pep assemblies, and half-time shows during football season. In addition, band members participated in local and state solo and ensemble contests. The band also took part in the marching contest at Medford in the fall and received a trophy for third place. To raise money for the Harry Bender music fund, a candy sale was held in the spring. This music fund provides money for students wishing to attend the various summer music camps held in the vicinity. Thus, every band member who wished to attend a camp received all or most of the entrance fee. Other activities of the band included traveling to the Milwaukee Zoo and attending concerts by famous performers such as the United States Marine Band.

The officers are president, Janice Brenner; vice-president, Debbie Rickard; secretary-treasurer Kris Feldbruegge; and music librarian Bill Kadonsky. The twirlers are: Laurie Brecke, Judy Dommer, Diane Firnstahl, Patti Koch, and Mary Schwartz. The majorette is Debbie Rickard.

A.F.S. Hosts Guest from Japan

The High School American Field Service Chapter worked closely with the adult chapter to earn money to finance the 1970-71 student's trip to the United States.

Projects sponsored by the AFS were penny drives, the supply store, and the AFS week, five days of fund raising. During the AFS week, activities included a slack day and an assembly at which area AFS students spoke to the student body. The day before Christmas vacation, nickels were to be collected for Chii Mizoguchi to call home to Japan.

This year officers were president, Sharon Cook; vice-president, Chii Mizoguchi; secretary, Joyce Atcherson; and treasurer, Pat Schmid. Mr. Haavisto was the club's adviser.

Gene Knoll (at left) is one of the students who spends his lunch module working in the AFS book store.

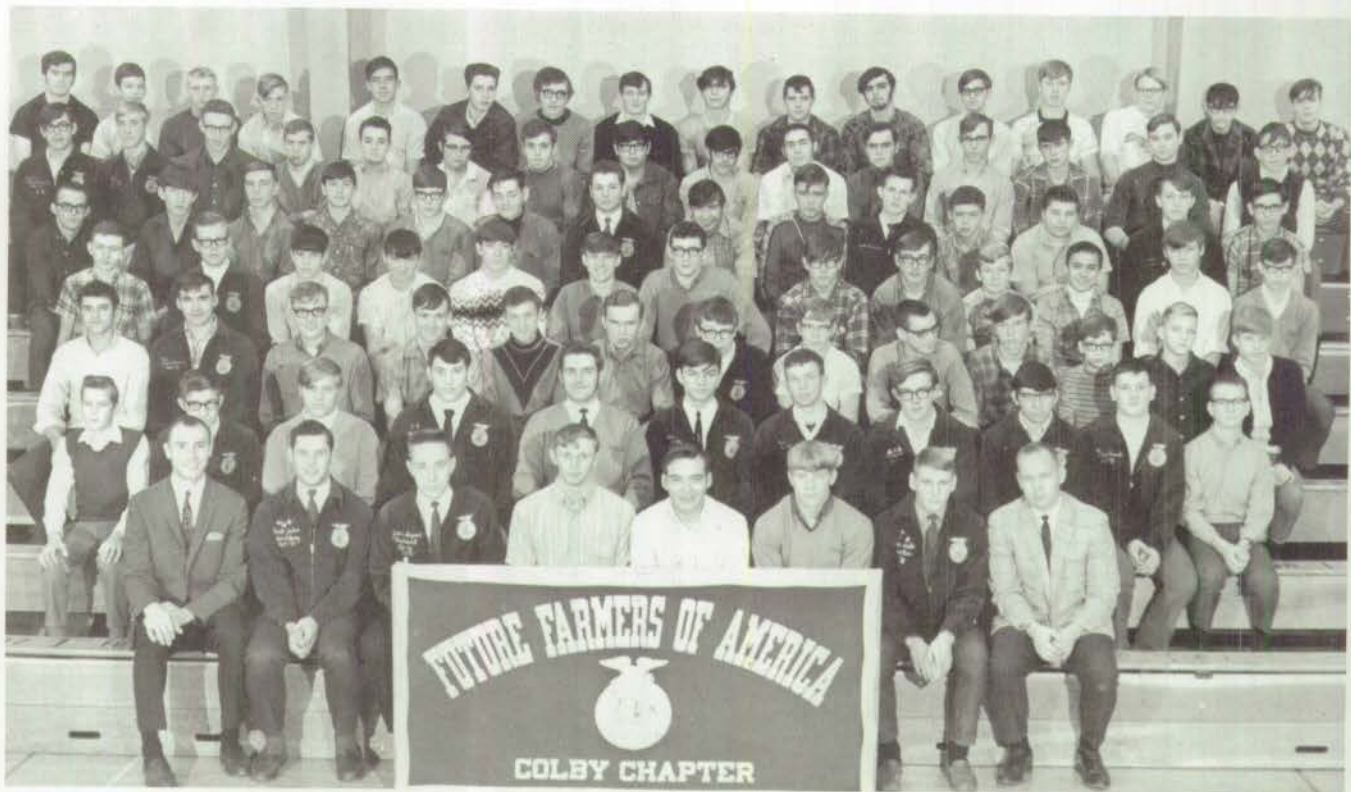

Among the new faces at CHS this year was Chieko Mizoguchi. She was our foreign exchange student from Japan for the 1969-70 school year. Chieko's home is near Tokyo. She has one brother who is 12, and one sister who is 15. Her father is a teacher and her mother is a housewife. Traveling and knitting are her hobbies. She also enjoys listening to music and watching basketball.

The school that Chieko previously attended was a girls school of about 1,200 students. This school was a senior high school. Chieko had a very full schedule last year. Her classes included math, English, physics, chemistry, world history, Japanese history, and phy. ed.

Donkey Basketball Highlights F.F.A. Activities

Throughout the past year the Future Farmers of America have been very busy sponsoring various activities. Some of these included the donkey basketball game, a corn sale, and safe corn harvest and tractor driving campaigns. The F.F.A. also participated in district, sectional, and state parliamentary procedure contests, and the Marathon county and state cattle judging contests. The Colby Chapter was also represented at the state F.F.A. convention, the Doughboy calf project, and the officers leader training meetings. All of the hard workers were rewarded with a trip to a Twins baseball game and many were honored at the parent-son annual banquet. For winter recreation, the F.F.A. collaborated with the F.H.A. on a toboggan party at Perkinstown. The officers this year were: President—John Beyerl, Vice-president—Jerry Marten, Secretary—Mark Zuber, Treasurer—Leon Dommer, Reporter—Glen Roth, and Sentinel—Tom Peissig. The advisers were Mr. Steffen and Mr. Nelson. The picture below shows an F.F.A. fair exhibit.

FHA Assists Korean Child

The Future Homemakers of America is an active organization, participating in such events as the donkey basketball game, the style show, and FHA week, the purpose of which is to acquaint students with the activities of FHA.

Each year the FHA participates in a demonstration contest and sends representatives to FHA rallies. They further their purpose of helping others by sending packages to Viet Nam and by sponsoring a six-year-old girl named Pak Chong Sun, in Korea. FHA'ers are rewarded by a toboggan party and also a trip in the spring.

The present officers are president Pat Heindl; vice-president Mary Beth Schumacher; secretary Donna Peissig; treasurer Judy Dommer; point secretary Virginia Weber. The advisers are Mrs. Subera and Miss Hornick.

This year's winner of the Homemaker of Tomorrow award was Charlene Johnson. Any senior girl interested is eligible for this award. She was selected on a basis of her score in the Betty Crocker Homemaker Test. Charlene is now eligible for state and national competition and honors. For her award she received a silver charm from General Mills and a cookbook. This award is designed to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career.

Pep Club—Leads in Spirit

The goal of the Pep Club was to inculcate spirit and enthusiasm for all of the 1969-70 athletic events. They helped support new cheers and ideas for instilling more pep.

Pep Club sponsored the annual Homecoming week with hall decorations, skit night, bonfire, and a dance.

This year's officers are: President Al Kreuger, Vice-President Barb Podevels, Secretary Karen Seblod, and Treasurer Jan Brenner.

Carol Lenz and Julie Scidmore back the players by making a poster.

GAA Finds Fun and Fitness

The Girls' Athletic Association was set up for girls to learn many of the sports that the boys play and how to show good sportsmanship in competing against other girls from school.

This year the GAA sponsored many activities for the girls. This included softball, volleyball, bowling, basketball, swimming, and badminton. Also, the GAA sponsored a play day for two area schools. They were Gilette and Shicoton. At the play day members did many different things in field hockey, volleyball, and swimming.

Several senior girls from Colby also participated in a play day at Stevens Point on October 26. There they spent a whole day learning new techniques in ballet, gymnastics, fencing, field hockey, swimming, and golf.

The officers for the 1969-70 school year were president, Ellen Giese; vice-president, Sharon Cook; secretary, Nancy Empey; and treasurer, Karen Carlson. The adviser is Mrs. Bradner.

You're in Focus

Throughout the past year the projectionists club has been working hard operating audio-visual equipment. They video-taped football and basketball games, along with various classroom activities. The projectionists also operated and repaired film and movie projectors and spliced tapes.

The photography club, a branch of the projectionists' club, worked with the Hillcrest staff. They took, developed, and printed the group pictures and candids necessary for the production of the annual.

The boys had a chance to improve their abilities this year by entering a photo contest sponsored by the Keel Studio. The best print from each area school was entered in the central Wisconsin contest where the winner received a trophy.

Officers of the photography and projectionists' club were: Kirk Schjoneman, president; and Loran Schulz, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Nomady was the club's adviser.

Library Aides Assist C.H.S. Students

Bathing beauty? Student librarians enjoy Christmas swim.

The Library Club is a service organization whose purpose is to assist students in the use of the library materials. The librarians are rewarded by an annual Christmas party. The present officers, president Sharon Cook, vice-president Peggy Lamont, and secretary Judy Dommer, were installed at the annual Spring Banquet. At this time pins were also awarded to two-year librarians. Appointed as reporters were Wendy Awe and Suzanne Miller, and the advisers are Mrs. Tennis and Mrs. Umhoefer.

"Get the hint?"

Newspaper Keeps Students Informed on School Doings

The Newspaper Staff's primary concern is publishing the monthly school newspaper and reporting all newsworthy events.

Again this year the Hornet's Buzz participated in the 33rd Annual School Press Project. The special edition of the paper, which dealt mainly with air pollution, smoking, poverty, or health, was submitted to the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association which co-sponsored the contest.

This year's editor was Debby Firnstahl, production editor Cathy Becker, art editor; Jan Hedler, head typist; Mary Gabriel, assembly staff chairman; Sally Schultz, head reporter; Wanda Underwood, sports editor; Mark Zuber, exchange editors, Diane Baumgartner and Debby Rickard. The advisers are Mrs. Treutel and Mrs. Gumz.

"Out! Out, darned spot!"

"I get exhausted just dreaming of him."

Service for Improved Understanding

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is unlike other clubs in the respect that it is not a social organization. Its purpose is service to the community. This year a candy sale and a slack and crazy hat day were held to raise funds for UNICEF (United Nations Children's Fund). Members of the National Honor Society are selected by the faculty on the grounds of leadership, character, scholarship, and service. Sophomores in the upper 5% of their class, juniors in the upper 10% of their class, and seniors in the upper 15% of their class can gain entry to the society if they have those qualities.

This year's officers were president, Karen Sebold; vice-president, Jeanne Witte; secretary, Cheryl Gosse; and treasurer, Kris Feldbruegge.

DAR

Receiving the 1970 Daughters of the American Revolution Award was Karen Sebold. The senior class nominated three girls and then the faculty chose Karen with regard to leadership, dependability, patriotism, and service.

“Freedom’s Challenge”

Voice of Democracy

This year a senior, Mary Ellen Schwartz was the local winner of the Voice of Democracy speech contest. This yearly contest is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and is sponsored by the local VFW. The topic for the speech contest this year was “Freedom’s Challenge.” Mary Ellen received a $25. savings bond for winning this contest. She then went to Medford to tape her speech. It was then sent on for competition at the district level.

Badger State— Wisconsin Government

Mark Zuber, George Kadonsky, Jim Dallman, and Sharon Cook represented Colby High School at Badger State from June 14-21, 1969. George, selected by the Dorchester American Legion Post, and Mark, Jim, and Sharon, selected by the faculty, were chosen for their interest in Wisconsin government. Badger Girls' State at the Madison UW campus, presented all aspects of Wisconsin government to their 500 citizens. Each of the 1000 boys at the Ripon College campus were able to select a specialized course of study such as law or civil service. During the week officers were elected. In Madison the girls had the privilege of holding their legislative session in the State Capitol.

Badger State is sponsored by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Council Oversees Student Activities

Council President, Vern Rankel; along with Superintendent, Mr. Boetcher; and Principal, Mr. Schwartz; presented an appreciation plaque to head cook, Mrs. Hansen for dedicated work.

Presiding over the Student Council meetings were adviser Mr. Caskey and President Vern Rankel. This year the Student Council scheduled the meetings held during activity period, discussed suggestions in the suggestion box, and approved dates for school dances and organizational weeks. The Student Council cosponsored the Christmas Sadie dance held December 12. Mock elections took place at the end of the 1968-69 school year. The Council also decorated the two Christmas trees in the hall.

The officers for the 1969-70 school year were: President—Vern Rankel, Vice-president—Sheila Gorke, Secretary—Mary Ellen Schwartz, and Treasurer—Wanda Underwood. The representatives were: Cheryl Gosse, Randy Westberg, Peggy Harris, Phil Waldhart, Marjean Schmid, Dave Becherer, Kathy Boss, Blane Caskey, Deanna Scidmore, Don Schmidt, Vicki Stange, and Jim Rickard.

Public Speakers Gain Self-Reliance

Approximately 70 students went out for the local forensic contest this year which was held on February 12, at the high school. All students grades 9-12 were urged to choose a category early and start working. Two winners were chosen from each of eight categories to go on to the subdistrict contest. Only one play-acting group was chosen to participate at the subdistrict level.

Speaking skills, poise and confidence, necessary to aid a person throughout his life, are gained through participation in the forensic contest.

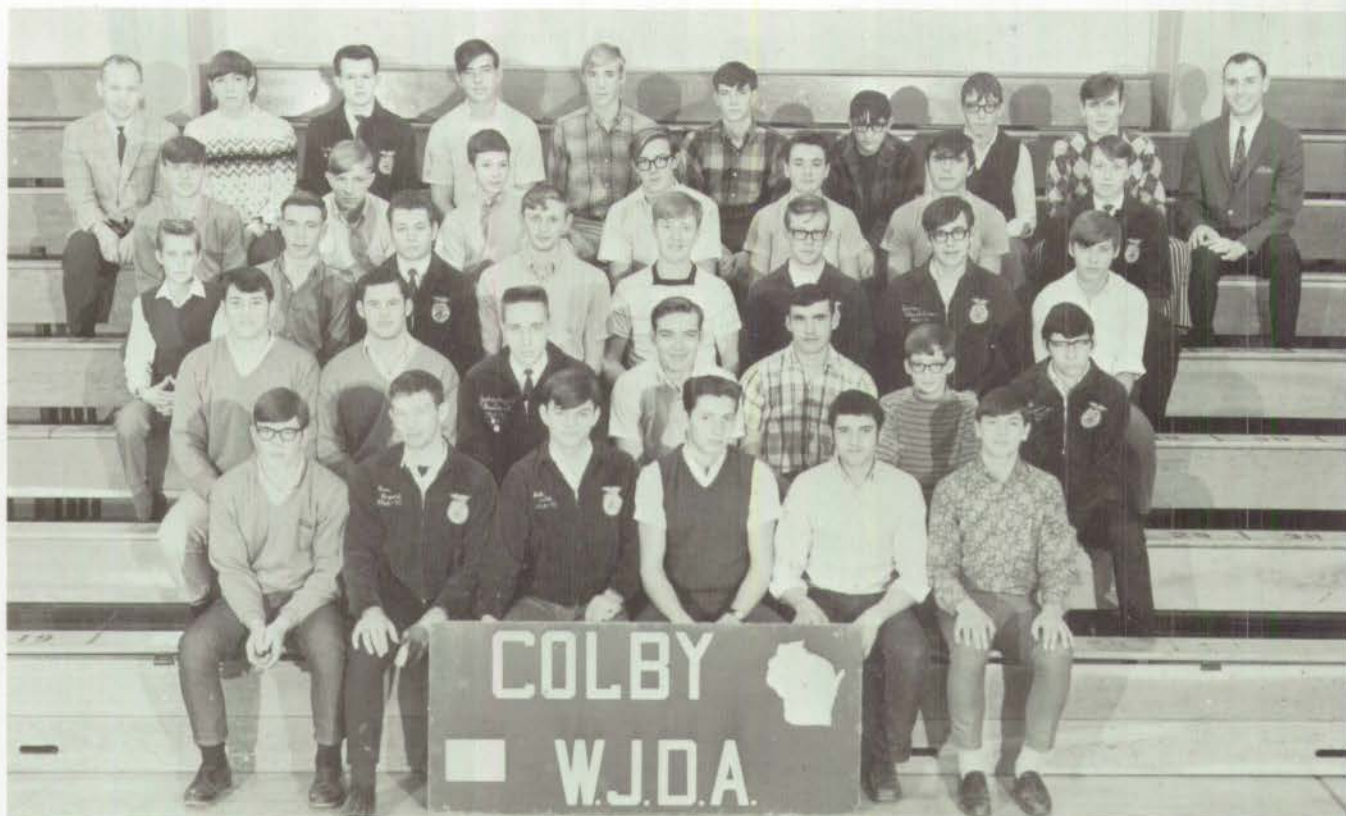

This year the Ipsissima Verba Club co-sponsored the Christmas Sadie Hawkins dance. This was done with the Student Council. Entertainment was provided by the Estate General.

The officers this year were: President, Barb Podevels; Vice-president, Tonnie Miller; Secretary, Kris Feldbruegge; Treasurer, Gary Marcott; and Historian, Jan Brenner. Mrs. Haas was the club's adviser.

As the forensics contest approaches, Pat Brown and Wendy Awe work on an entry in play-acting.

W.J.D.A. Places for Awards

W.J.D.A. members started their hard work during the past summer. In June, five members attended the state convention at Green Bay. While there, the boys placed second for the Sweepstakes Award and third for the Dairy Show Award. Members also prepared cattle for many county fairs as well as the District Black and White Show at Marshfield.

After returning to school, members updated their dairy records and new members were started on testing through the local Central Dairy Improvement Cooperative. In December the boys conducted a money making project by selling Zip Code Finders.

Officers of the club were: President—Randy Stockwell, Vice-president—Kevin Schaefer, Secretary—Dennis Engel, Treasurer—Norm Miller, and Directors—Ken Beyerl and Bob Will.

Lettermen Sport a New Look

The CHS Lettermen were quite noticeable this year as they made their appearance in the new sweaters which the club purchased. The club sells concessions at home sports events. In the spring the Lettermen sponsored the athletic banquet where a notable sports figure was featured speaker. Admission to the Lettermen's Club is gained by active participation in CHS' four interconference sports. The officers were: Mark Zuber, President, Tom Peissig, Vice President; and Wayne Reineking; Secretary-Treasurer. The advisors are Mr. Bundgaard, Mr. Langham, and Mr. Teska.

I PROMISED him I'd work the whole half, but he just had to nail my foot to the floor.

“Chapel in the Moonlight”

Observing the crowning of King Al Krueger and Queen Kay Kilty are members of the court: Joyce Dums, Carol Lenz, Jan Smart, Joyce Atcherson, Jan Brenner, Larry Oehmichen, Kevin Steinmetz, Bob Will, Randy Westberg, and Gary Marcott.

King Al Krueger Chose Kay Kilty As Queen

A cobblestone walk leading to a brightly illuminated chapel seemed to catch everyone's attention as they entered the gymnasium for the 1969 Prom. A colorful flower garden, shrubs, and flower centerpieces helped to emphasize the theme "Chapel in the Moonlight." Then, as the bell tolled and as Neil Skibba and his Orchestra played the theme song, the grand march began. For a minute everyone was enchanted by the effect of the crowning before the chapel. Soon this romantic evening was at an end, but no one can forget the memories created by "Chapel in the Moonlight."

Highlights the Spring Season

Couples danced and strolled through the chapel.

Juniors made many crepe paper flowers to decorate the gym. Pictured are Donna Peissig and Bonnie Hederer.

A happy court presided over a victorious Homecoming to the soft strains of Crystal Blue Persuasion produced by the Sleep Garden. Mark Zuber and his queen, Diane Staffeil ruled over the gay happenings. The court was composed of freshmen representatives Dan Singstock and Deanna Engel; sophomore representatives Rich Dums and Pauline Stoiber; junior representatives Tom Peissig and Tonnie Miller; and senior representatives Jim Callman and Cheryl Gosse.

Student Spirit Produces a Victorious Homecoming

This year homecoming created more excitement and enthusiasm than it ever has in the past. For a week before the homecoming, the halls were being decorated. Each hall had very original ideas, but this year the sophomores won first place with a job well done. Actual homecoming activities began by mistake on Wednesday night when our bonfire was lit by our rivals? This event got everyone in better spirits, and by Thursday night we had a bigger and better bonfire to further arouse our pep. Various organizational skits were also held on Thursday evening. Finally, Friday night arrived, and the Hornets were victorious over the Neillsville Warriors with a 15 to 7 score. These past happenings set the stage for the dance and made the 1969 Homecoming a most memorable one.

"Get me a brush!" was constantly heard as industrious seniors slaved over their hall.

The Forensic Club produced a spirit arousing skit with the help of "Madame Hortense." Gary Marcott, Peggy Lamont, and Ken Kops.

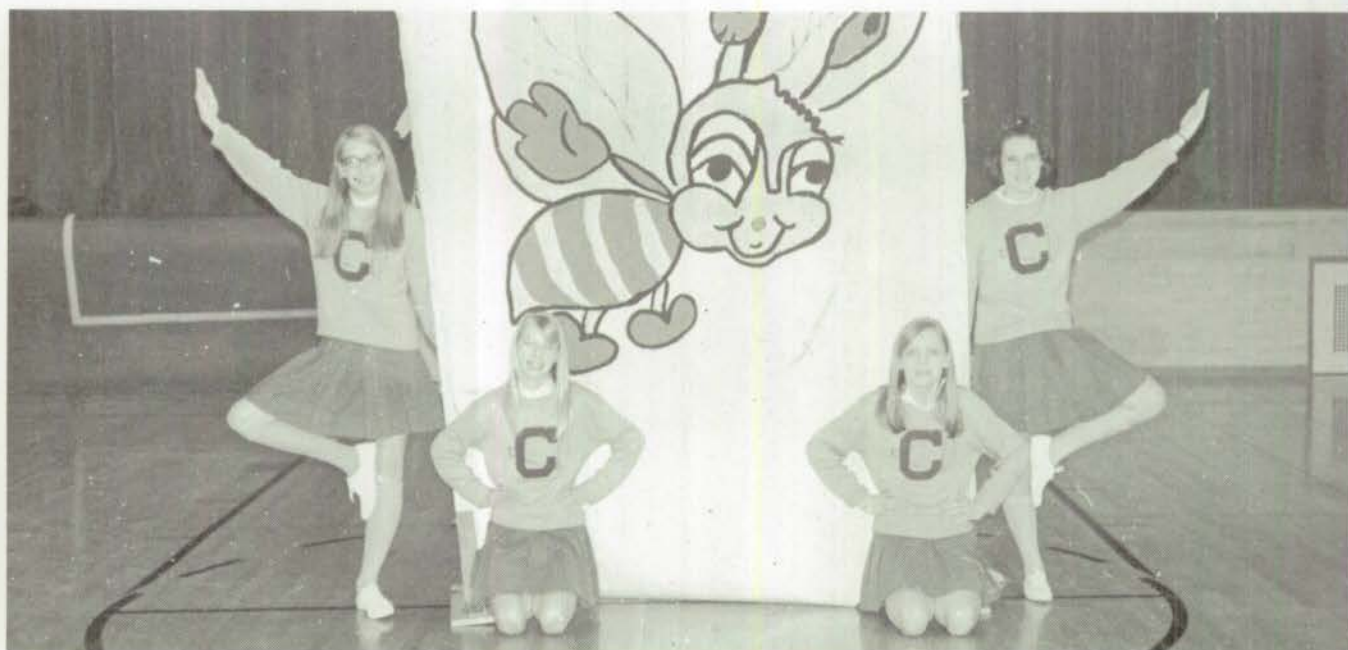

Hilarious laughter filled the gym as seniors mimicked the teachers.

Varsity Joyce Lenz, Carol Lenz, Captain, Cheryl Gosse, Kathy Nomady, Kathy Becker.

Junior Varsity Vicki Frome, Kathy Boss, Sheryl Decker, Captain Debbie Rickard.

Cheerleaders of CHS

Enthusiasm is shown throughout the school year by the cheerleaders.

Last summer the three captains Cheryl Gosse, Debbie Rickard and Debby Firnstahl, attended the cheerleading camp in Eau Claire. They returned with new types of cheers and new ideas which were introduced to the school at the pep sessions. They helped to increase the school spirit.

The "A" squad leads the crowd during football and basketball games and works on various projects dealing with the games.

The "B" squad cheerleaders add their pep to the junior varsity basketball games and pep sessions during the season.

The wrestling squad cheer for the junior varsity and varsity wrestlers.

Wrestling

Robyn Rannow, Diane Beyerl, Captain Cheryl Schulz, Cindy Hesgard, Diane Ven Rooy.

A new idea this year was the spirit can. Hornet-backers roar as Kathy lifts the lid.

That score board must be at least ten points off.

ATHLETICS

Miller, Peissig, Sterzinger Voted All-Conference

After a disastrous start of losing all four non-conference games, this year's football team came to a position of prominence. This was accomplished by copping second place in the Cloverbelt Conference and earning a berth on the play-off team. The squad, bothered by inexperience and faulty play, stumbled through the first two games. They then settled into a formidable defensive unit, yet waited two more games for the offense to move. The Hornet's first win came in the opening conference game when they crushed Loyal's Greyhounds as the offense and the defense jelled for the first time. Loyal's only score came as a result of a last second kick-off return against reserves. Tom Peissig, a junior, led the way as he pushed on to important first downs and scores. After a loss to Thorp, the Hornets defeated a champion Greenwood team 3-0 as the inspired Colby eleven held the vanquished Indians to three first downs. The game was won in the third quarter as a sophomore Dave Becherer kicked a 23 yard field goal to provide the margin. Colby then defeated Neillsville which set the stage for the game against Owen-Withee, the pre-season favorite to win the conference. A win would give Colby a co-championship. After leading 7-6 at the half, a second half error and a missed assignment cost the Hornets a championship. An excellent recovery was shown by a predominately underclass team. The future looks bright for the Hornets in football.

Tom Peissig led the team in rushing. He was also chosen all-conference on both offense and defense. Others selected on the all-conference team were offensive guard Norn Miller and tackle Gary Sterzinger. Those making all-conference honorable mention include: Wayne Reineking, Butch Firnstahl, Doug Ayer, Jerry Eggebrecht, and Dave Becherer.

Did you see that cute blond cheerleader?

One of Dave's record breaking kicks . . . if it isn't blocked!

Weekly Awards Presented at Pep Sessions

A new feature of the CHS football program this year was the player of the week award. The recipient of the award was chosen by his fellow varsity teammates. Selection was based on the player who was felt to have shown the best effort and performance during the individual game.

CHS Gridders Win MVP Awards

The Colby High coaches presented four awards to boys in the football team. The awards were Most Valuable Back, Tough Nut, Most Valuable Freshman, and Most Valuable Lineman. The recipients were chosen by the coaches according to the individual's statistics.

Most Valuable Back honors and the award went to junior, Tom Peissig. Tom led CHS' rushing with a total of 712 yards.

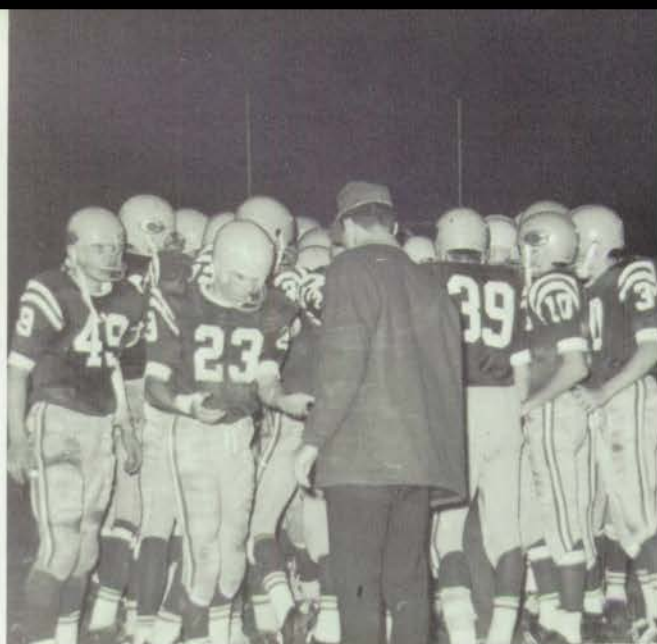

Randy Schultz received this year's Most Valuable Freshmen award. Randy rushed 547 yards for the freshmen team.

This year, Gary Sterzinger was chosen as CHS' Most Valuable Lineman. Gary, a tackle, was a leading asset on offense.

If I told you once, I've told you a million times, NO TACKLING CHEERLEADERS!

But Coach, I-I DID wash my hands!

He must use Hai Karate.

Sure, it's a case of webbed feet!

I never could quite touch my toes.

"Well, Rich, you can always try out for basketball."

Way to call there, Uncle Joe.

The 1969-70 Hornet Basketball team had an improved season over last year with a 8-9 record. With young talent, and under the direction of head coach Tom Langham, the boys began long, tiring practices shortly after the end of football season.

Practice paid off as the Hornets boasted four wins in five starts. Long to be remembered by the team and fans alike will be the 56-55 win over Abbotsford, a long time rival. The Hornets then suffered three conference defeats—the narrowest of them 52-51, at the hands of Thorp, the Cloverbelt East champs this year. The CHS cagers came back to beat Greenwood 59-56, and during the remainder of the season gave the Hornet backers many tense moments as they played every game to win.

Varsity starters this year were: center—Larry Oehmichen; forwards—Dave Becherer and Dean Haas; and guards—Rich Dums and Jerry Eggebrecht.

J.V. Basketball—Experience Through Competition

Comprised of junior and sophomore boys, the main purpose of the JV squad is to further prepare the boys with the necessary skills and techniques used in competitive playing before they become members of the varsity squad. Under coach Jim Steinberg, the JV has a schedule similar to that of the varsity; they travel to other conference and area schools and play their teams.

Team Responds to Coaching and Practice

Upper left: Forward Dean Haas eludes the defense as he drives in for a basket. Lower left: Dave displays the form that helped him become one of the conference's leading scores. Above: The reserves didn't have long to wait to play as they widened the substantial lead the starters had built up. Upper right: Jerry continues down the court on a fast break to give the Hornets two points. Lower right: Larry Oehmichen, center, stretches out as he gets ready to rack up another score.

Matmen Make the Effort but Results Are Disappointing

Duane Hilber is awarded three points as a result of a reversal during a match which he eventually won over his Neillsville opponent.

Wrestling is a rugged sport where strong bodies and agility prove to be valuable assets. As participants in perhaps the toughest sport in high school, wrestlers find their practices long and exhausting. Although our Hornet matmen ended the season with a 1 and 10 record, they are respected for their effort and hard work on the team. With Gary Sterzinger and Terry Schraufnagel as the only graduating wrestlers, the team will benefit from all the experience of the returning matmen.

School Records Fall Despite

"I just can't run that again!"

"These hurdles get higher each year!"

"You've got to watch where you're going."

Unsuccessful Season

The Colby High School track team took a tremendous jump in size this year as it increased from 13 members to 31 members. With the loss of quite a few senior lettermen, the track team was to have a year of rebuilding. Although we won only one meet, three school records fell. So despite an unsuccessful season, the track team and their coaches can look ahead to a winning future as many new prospects are working their way up.

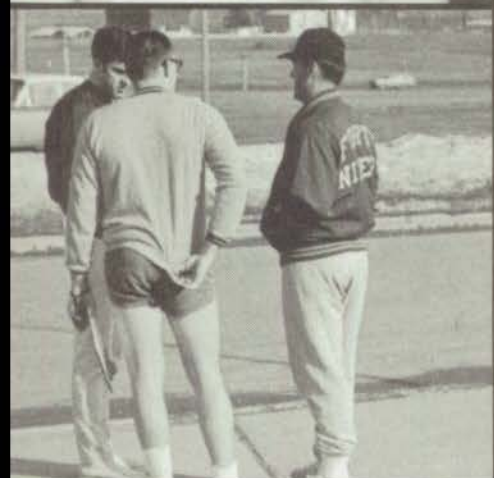

Pit stop.

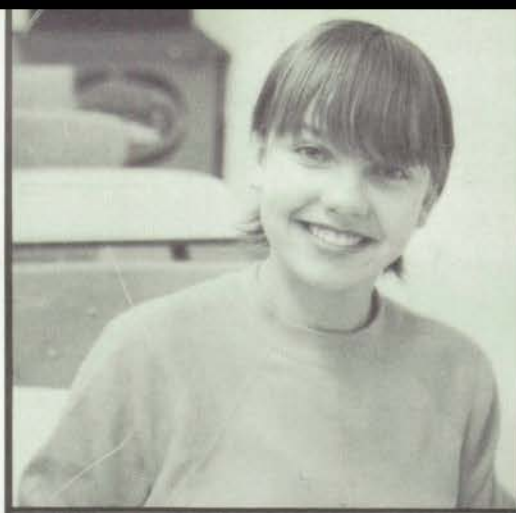

A few more feet and he'll be in range!

Editors' Note

As seniors, this past year has been our last at Colby High School. It was our opportunity to make what we wanted of it; to accomplish however much we wished to, or were capable of. And as the editors of this yearbook we also had opportunity, a chance to preserve in the Hillcrest what we had experienced throughout the year. Responsibility accompanied the task, for recording an entire year on only one hundred and fifty seven pages is quite a job! But with help from our staff, patience from the faculty when we interrupted classes, and most of all, with the guidance, assistance, and good humor of Mr. Jarzin, we have tried to recall for you the days and events of the 1969-70 schoolyear.

The editors of the 1969-70 Hillcrest were: Peggy Lamont, Nancy Brunker, Sharon Cook, Debby Luchterhand, and Jeanne Witte.
