What is a student? A student is many things — a child, an adult, an individual. He is a person who is changing, searching, learning, growing, experiencing, loving . . reflecting on a changing world, on new experiences, on life . . . A student is all of these things, but one more thing . . . A student is living.

A student is a person who is lonely — alone with himself, alone with his thoughts waiting for a letter, a telephone call . . . an empty hall, a quiet corner . . . alone in a crowd, with tears and heartache . . . a person who understands his loneliness — of growing up and changing . . . who finds peace in solitude and restful thoughts . . . alone in a world of people.

A student is a friend . . . a friend who understands and forgives, who loves, who cares . . . a person who thinks of others, who shares — his heart, his knowledge, his love . . . a gift he gives to others . . . a smile, a quiet look, one word of love . . . walking hand in hand, a kiss, one small red rose . . . a friend who knows that it takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow . . . to be a friend.

School Board Responsible For Supervision, Improvement

The Board of Education meets every month to confer on policy and to discuss problems related to the operation of the district schools. Members spend considerable time in attending meetings, doing educational research, and reading documents which aid them in formulating policy. Persons living within the Colby School District can indeed take pride in the complete education program we have available.

Activities

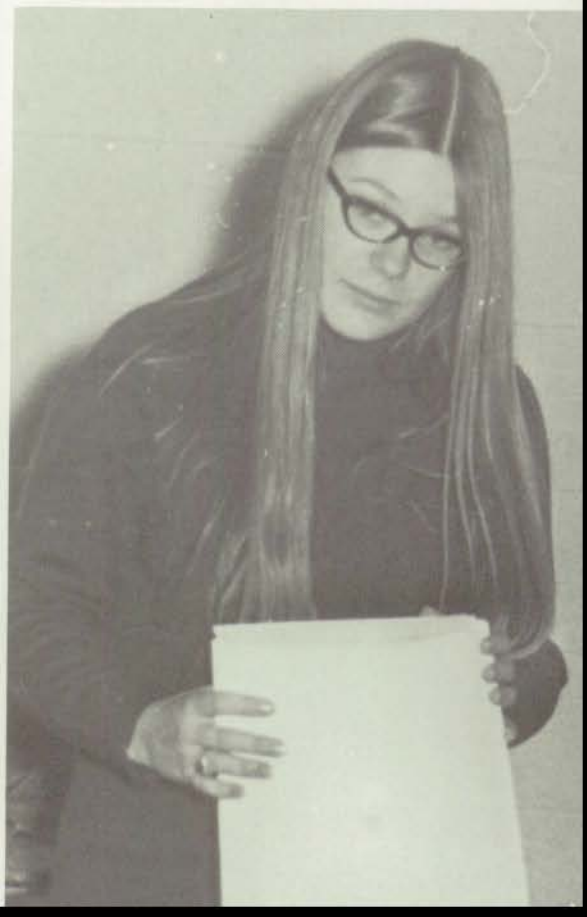
Hillcrest Staff Endures . . . Just Barely!

The 1972-'73 school year proved to be another arduous one for the annual staff. After attending a workshop in Eau Claire, members began work on the Hillcrest in September with renewed energy and enthusiasm. Bad weather, long hours, and lack of pictures sapped the members' spirits, and only the hardiest and most dedicated members persevered to the final page. Members sacrificed several hours every week to tax their creativity by drawing up layouts, writing copy, and making up headlines and captions. Considerable time was also spent typing copy, correcting errors, cajoling photographers, and praying that pictures would turn out. Throughout it all, staffers managed to maintain their sanity and rally to get in those last few pages. The fruits of the staff's endeavors were enjoyed by the entire student body at the traditional annual signing party in the spring. Breathing a sigh of relief, the staffers threw aside thoughts of copy, photos, and deadlines at a final spring celebration.

"Who thaid I have a lisp?"

"They're using me for the centerfold?"

"Are you sure this is addressed to me?"



Reading Between the Lines

Many new ideas and attractions were added to the Hornet Highlights this year by the devoted members of the staff. Various individuals attended the Chippewa Valley High School Press Association Conference at the University of Wisconsin—Eau Claire earlier in the year. Here, these staff members participated in several newspaper meetings which dealt with such areas as feature writing, indepth reporting, and editorial subjects. The day was brought to a close as our group gathered for an over-all discussion of our own Hornet Highlights. The primary result of this long day was a much more interesting publication for the students in our school. The staff members were directed by editor Jeannie Pinter and advisors Miss Meath and Mrs. Braatz.

"Too bad we can't print this in the newspaper."

Laurel and Hardy

Junior High News and Views

Now in its second year of existence, the Junior High Rap continued to inform and entertain its readers. Each month staff members assembled and published the Rap under the guidance of Miss Serum. News articles, editorials, poems, and other original pieces were contributed to the paper by both staff members and other junior high students. The Rap thus effectively filled its role as the voice of the younger students of CHS.

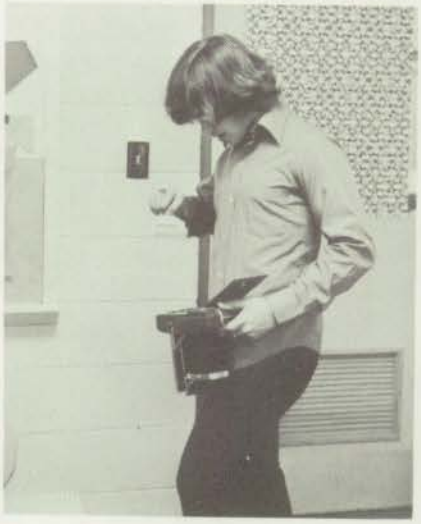
Hear and See With the A-V

Cameras, projectors, and tape recorders are some of the elaborate toys A-V members play with and operate for the school. The job of every good A-V member is the providing of audio-visual equipment and services to the staff for the enrichment of their various classes. A-V also provided invaluable services to the football and basketball teams, and to the newspaper and annual staffs. In overall charge of the videotaping, the use of photographic film, and the development of pictures was advisor Mr. Nomady. Assisting him in this task were this year's officers, President Mike Lamont and Secretary Russ Bedroske.

"Where's the flashbulb?"

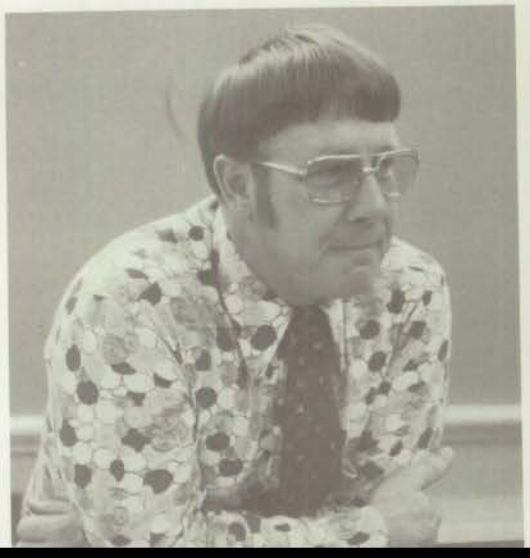
Mix 2 lbs. flour and 5 lbs. sugar . . .

"Mr. Nomady told me to step on it."



Government in Action

The Student Council this year continued its efforts to improve relations between the students and the administration, to improve the quality of life for students and the faculty. To relieve the crowding of the halls during the noon hours, the council introduced the presentation of movies in the theater. Council members also investigated areas creating problems for the administration, and several items of interest to the student body, including a break in the afternoon. Meetings were conducted by the officers Al Becker, President; Mike Kilty, Vice President; Chris Stieber, Secretary; and Fay Hainzlsperger, Treasurer under the direction of advisors Mr. Caskey and Mr. Haas. Members of this year's student council were seventh graders Kevin Gosse and Julie Hasselberger, eighth graders Brad Gokey and Carrie Pfeffercorn, freshmen Brad Caskey and Geri Becker, sophomores Doyle Boisen and Donna Brehm, juniors Tom Waldhart and Trudi Hubing, and seniors Bill Meyer and Cheryl Schulz.



Mr. Knight keeps a watchful eye on special ed. children at the Halloween party given them by the ARC.

Friends of Mine

The Youth ARC was again very active in its service to people less fortunate than themselves. Selected members returned from the state and national YARC conventions brimming with new ideas and enthusiasm for continued service to the retarded. In addition to routine teaching of classes, members sponsored a day camp, a special olympics, and parties for the retardates in the community. Money for these projects and for conventions was raised by a spring bike ride, and by the sale of Adrian products and candles. Officers this year were President, Relinda Hommema; Vice President, Leanne Reise; Secretary, Jeri Schmidt; Treasurer, Tami Johnson; and Historian, Donna Brehm.

Librarians Are Really Bookkeepers

Checking out books, spelling words, loaning sheets of paper, and getting magazines from the stacks are some of the many duties of library aides. Aides also performed many other tasks in the library in service to the student body. The library was put into the holiday spirit with brightly colored decorations, and energetic librarians celebrated the season with a party at Christmas. Officers this year were President, Gayle Ballerstein; Vice President, Shirley Hamus; and Secretary, Judy Sterzinger.

"I have HOW many books overdue?"

Democracy Exhibited

Marilyn Bauer was this year's winner of the Voice of Democracy contest which was sponsored by the Colby VFW. The theme of this year's contest was "My Responsibility to Freedom." It was judged on basic content, delivery, and originality. Marilyn's speech was recorded on tape and delivered to the district contest. Marilyn received for her hard work a $25 savings bond from the VFW.

Service to America

Mary Peissig was selected as the 1973 recipient of the Daughter of American Revolution award. Each year the senior class elects three girls for this award. From these, one girl is chosen by the faculty. Selection is based on leadership, dependability, patriotism, and service.

Speaking Out of Turn

This year's Forensics Club decided to encourage public speaking by taking action and sponsoring a workshop in December at the High School. Professors from Eau Claire University conducted lectures on each of the Forensics categories. Forensics members of eight area schools were invited to attend. After the lecture, students were allowed to ask questions and the floor was open for discussion.

The local Forensics Contest was held in February with more members participating in all the possible categories than ever before. Students then went to compete at the other various levels.

The money raised from all the kiddy matinees and the movies showed at the high school was contributed to the scholarship fund. This scholarship is awarded to a senior, who is selected by a committee of older members and the advisors.

This year's Forensics officers are: President, Russ Mueller; Vice-President, Dale Mueller; Secretary, Julie Jacobson; Treasurer, Paula Mohan; and Historian, Fay Hainzlsperger. The advisors are Mr. La Sota and Miss Kronka.

An Experience in State Government

Colby High's representative to the Badger Boy's State this year was Al Becker. The week Al spent at Ripon included classes covering law, public service, the structure and function of state government. Spare time could be devoted to athletic, musical, and newspaper activities. The boys spent their nights listening to speeches on a variety of subjects pertaining to state government.

WJDA Provides Practical Experience in Agriculture

The WJDA membership consists of vocational agriculture students interested in the practical aspects of farming. The organization was established to promote dairy herd testing, and subsequently the testing of milk from members' families' herds is the main activity. By providing a discount in the price of milk testing to members, the club performs a service to many area farmers.

Besides milk testing, the WJDA also participates in various competitive activities. The demonstration team took part in a statewide contest, and Steve Kadonsky represented the Colby WJDA in the Extemporaneous Speaking contest. All activities were carried out under the direction of the officers: president, Jim Schraufnagel; vice-president, Dennis Reynolds; secretary, Dennis Wenske; treasurer, Jeff Schaefer. The advisors were Mr. Spranger and Mr. Rasmussen.

A Taste of French Culture

The Big Eight: Wanted by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Mrs. Nomady.

Le Cercle Francais, now in its third year, continues to look forward to another busy school year. Last spring was highlighted when thirty-two students toured Canada for a week in May. Some fascinating places beheld were Niagara Falls, Expo '67 in Montreal, Notre Dame Cathedral, and the Chateau Frontenac and the Citadel, parts of Old Quebec.

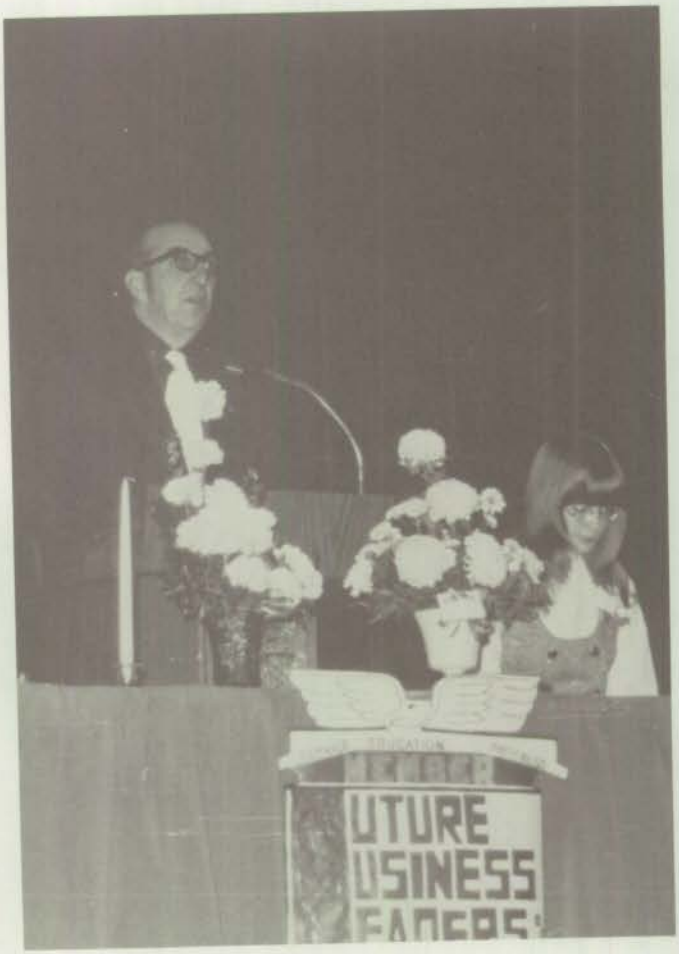
Forming the core of le Cercle Francais are this year's officers: President, Trudi Hubing; Vice-President, Paula Mohan; Secretary, Susan Viergutz; Treasurer, Mike Lamont; Historian, Carol Stoiber; and advisor Mrs. Nomady. The annual Christmas party was held at Nomady's. After carolling, students in third and fourth year French presented a skit. Members exchanged gifts and played charades.

All the members are looking forward to the spring rally, in which numerous schools will be invited to attend. French customs will be exibited and French foods will be served.

FBLA Furthers Business Skills

The Future Business Leaders of America was formed this year in compliance with a recommendation made by the North Central Association Evaluating Committee. Installing our chapter were the FBLA members of Thorp High School. At this time, Mrs. Braatz, Mrs. Haavisto, and Mr. Wiedenhoeft became the advisors of the club.

Our branch of the club attended the two-day session of the FBLA Convention on March 23 and 24. Also, the chapter participated in various business skill contests at local, state, and national levels and operated the book store. The officers were: president, Sheila Jacobi; vice-president, Jeannie Pinter; secretary, Vicky Koerner; treasurer, Kathie Boss; and reporter, Margaret Reynolds.



El Asemblea de Espanol

One of CHS's newest clubs, El Asemblea de Espanol, or the Spanish Club, was organized this year by la senorita Kronka.

Its purpose is to promote knowledge of the Spanish language and culture among its members.

This year's activities included a cupcake and a candy kiss sale, and a spring dance.

The first officers were President Gail Eckerstrom, Vice President Margo Kaiser, Secretary Cindy Ellenbecker, Treasurer Trudi Hubing, and Historian Marilyn Bauer.

NHS: Service to Humanity

Leadership, scholarship, character, and service continued to be promoted this year by the National Honor Society. Although their activities were by necessity somewhat restricted, a drive was instigated to allocate funds to send vegetable seeds to the victims of the Nicaragua earthquake. Such an endeavor is representative of the activities to be sponsored in the future by the N.H.S. in service to humanity. To provide incentive for its members, the National Honor Society annually awards 200 scholarships on a national basis. Cheryl Schulz and Bill Meyer (lower right) were nominated by the Colby Chapter as candidates for this scholarship. Bill and Cheryl were judged by the membership to be most outstanding among the senior members in the aspects of leadership, scholarship, character, and service. The photo on the lower left depicts Kim Hedler at the induction ceremony held last spring. Officers this year were Cheryl Schulz, President; Bill Meyer, Vice-President; Jeanne Pinter, Secretary; and Dean Ruppert, Treasurer. Mrs. Caskey is the advisor.

Art Club Examines Masterpieces

The newly formed Art Club is off to a good start. Their purpose is to study various pieces of art. The Club hosted outside resource personnel who demonstrated their specialities. In an endeavor to gain further knowledge of art, the club plans to tour centers of art culture. The first officers of the new Art Club are: President, Anna Smith; Vice-President, Dawn Will; Secretary, Shelly Langhus; Treasurer, Debbie Danen; and advisor Mr. Himes.

Chorus Puts Harmony Into Student Life

The Chorus had another busy year as its members enriched the Colby community with their musical endeavors. The fall musical season was highlighted by performances of the operetta "Jeanie". Chorus members then applied their energy to the preparation of a Christmas concert. A pop concert, solos and emsembles, the district band and chorus festival, and a spring concert kept industrious chorus members on the go for the rest of the year.

For the first time this year, the boys' and girls' glee clubs were able to formally organize. They met twice a week on a rotating basis during regular class periods. These groups, along with the madrigals and the triple trio augmented the chorus concerts with sparkling performances, and competed at music contests.

Band Gives All-out Effort to

Special recognition should be given to the Colby High School Band for their supreme efforts throughout the 1972-73 school year. As well as having marched for the icy football season, they again contributed their valuable time to entertain at the pep sessions and games.

Colby held its first band clinic this year by having played host to the Owen-Withee Band. The afternoon was highlighted by the presence of several university clinicians.

All of these strenuous activities met success under the leadership of Mr. Rickard and the officers: president, Cheryl Schulz; vice-president, Margo Kaiser; and secretary-treasurer, Tami Johnson.

GAA Provides Outlet for Energy

Loud voices, strong bodies, and a lot of fun were the outcome of this year's GAA activities. Basketball, volleyball, and bowling gave members a chance to use pent-up energy. Accompanying these sports were the usual shouts and screams of girls having a good time. In addition to athletic activities, GAA members went caroling before Christmas, and further enjoyed themselves at a Christmas party and a spring banquet. Coordinating these activities were the officers: president, Karen Dommer; vice-president, Rhonda Haas; secretary, Cheryl Brusewitz; treasurer, Marilyn Bauer; reporter, Patsy Baumgart, and advisor, Miss Senderhauf.

Pep Club Catches Bouncing Spirit

Pep Club exists to promote and raise school spirit at the various athletic functions. Consisting of athletes, cheerleaders, and other enthusiastic students, the Pep Club sponsored the activities of Homecoming week and sent the cheerleaders to camp. Members helped raise spirit at basketball games and wrestling matches by making creative and inspiring posters. Activities were directed by President Robyn Rannow, Vice President Erlan Wenzel, Secretary Cheryl Schulz, and Treasurer Mary Allman.

FFA Held Enthusiastic Initiation

FFA continued to participate in activities related to agriculture and community service. Women's Lib entered the realm of FFA this year when two girls were admitted into the club. Officers were President Russ Bedroske, Vice President John Ewert, Secretary Keith Krebsbach, Treasurer Jim Schraufnagel, Reporter Rich Rau, Sentinel Stan Rankel, and Parliamentarian Rocky Schmidt.

Local FHA Chapter Encourages

The Colby FHA spent another year fulfilling its dual function of service and education. Stanley Products were sold this fall to raise money for the sponsoring of a Korean child. At Christmas, the girls sent packages of candy and cookies to servicemen overseas, and they wrapped toys the FFA had repaired for distribution to needy children. Members also decorated classroom doors before Christmas permeating the entire school with Yuletide spirit.

Representing the Colby FHA at the District Demonstration Contest at Thorp were Mary Peissig and Kathy Schultz, both of whom received A's in competition. Winning the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award this year was Susan Runzheimer (upper left on following page.) To receive this award, Susan scored highest on a test of homemaking and general knowledge.

Leading the girls in their activities this year were president, Laurie Brecke; vice-president, Kathy Beyerl; secretary-treasurer, Lynette Will; point secretary, Debbie Steevens; and reporter, Doreen Decker.

Homemaking Abilities in Members

From the Pen of Playwrights

Tom, Becky, Huck, and Aunt Polly came to life on stage as the Masquers, under the direction of Mrs. Schwartz, presented "Tom Sawyer." The play cast and the supporting committees put in hours of hard work in the preparation of this dramatization of Mark Twain's classic. The results of this effort were several fine performances for the public.

In addition to presenting "Tom Sawyer," the Masquers took a trip to the Guthrie Theater where they saw "Oedipus the King."

The Masquers officers this year were Fay Hainzlsperger, President; Bill Meyer, Vice President; Paula Mohan, Secretary; and Dale Mueller, Treasurer.

This year's varsity cheerleaders helped spark their teams to victory during football and basketball season. An additional pep booster came with the Spirit Stick, won by the squad at camp. The girls attended an NCA camp at Platteville, where they captured many blue ribbons and were nominated for the Coca-Cola Award. The girls generated much energy and displayed outstanding sportsmanship throughout a successful year.

As Tarzan would say, "Ah-ah-ah-ah!"

Turn on Hey Hornets

The B-squad cheerleaders this year used a share of the varsity cheers and those that Pauline Hoffman learned at the clinic she attended at Lake Geneva. This produced a variation of rhythms in their cheers. Since it is the duty of each squad to raise some money during the year, the junior varsity sold slogan ribbons. The squad consisted of Captain Pauline Hoffman, Kim Hedler, Sara Koch, Diane Hilber, and Gail Eckerstrom.

We Can Take Care of You

Leading the ever increasing crowds in cheering the Colby wrestlers on to victory were the wrestling cheerleaders. As wrestling is a much different sport from basketball or football, so the wrestling cheers are also different from those used by A-squad. The wrestling cheers were very crisp and fast, reflecting the nature of the sport; they were introduced by Vicky Johnson, who attended cheerleading camp with Pauline Hoffman the preceding summer. Members of the Wrestling Squad included Captain Vicky Johnson, Renee Miller, Margo Kaiser, Kathie Boss, and Wanita Underwood.

Prom: A Garden of Delight

Nature's Way was the theme selected by the juniors for their 1972 Junior Prom. The gymnasium, decorated with royal purple and national blue streamers, resembled an outdoor wonderland. The main attraction was a garden complete with mushrooms, flowers, and butterflies; there was also a waterfall.

After all the couples were announced from the stage, Ron Johnson, the 1971 Prom King, assisted by crownbearers Scott Decker and Merrie Neitzel, crowned Tom Hoffman the new king, who then crowned Queen Sue Viergutz and they began the coronation walk. The Grand March ended in a bridge formed by all the couples, through which the royal couple strolled to the music of Nature's Way, furnished by Carnabee Street.

All right, who put the bubblegum on our shoes?!!

In their third year of competition the Cross Country team continued to improve through long hours of hard work. Their placements in meets reflect the fact that many of the members are underclassmen. Time will only tell what a great Cross Country team we will have in future years. The members of last fall's team were: Mark Runzheimer, Bill Meyer, Randy Leu, Randy Lube, Keith Kunkel, Greg Sterzinger, and Tom Bobbe.

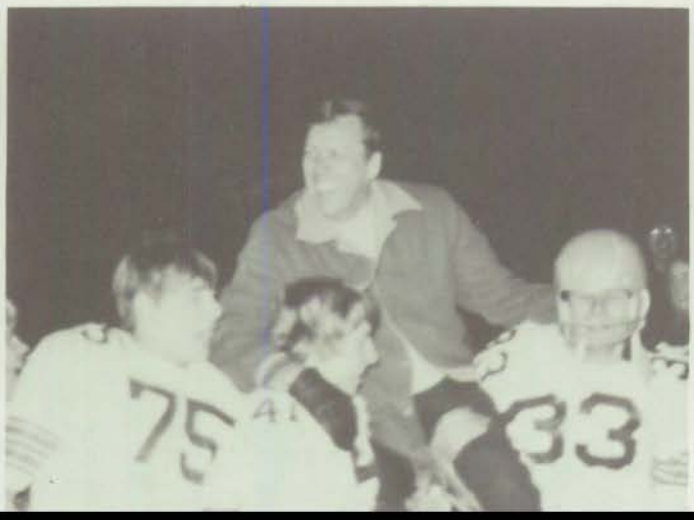
Football Field of Fame

The 1972 football season was completed in true Hornet style as the Hornets captured the Cloverbelt Conference title for the second consecutive year.

Included with the conference title, trophy, and this year's outstanding team, came a proud head coach, Duane Teska. This season, the Hornets scored a total of 243 points, holding their opponents to 92 points.

Along with their eight hard-fought victories came one discouraging defeat. This game was played against Mondovi on September 1. Colby's final score was 26, and Mondovi's 32. The Hornets snapped back from this defeat only to win a wild offensive battle with Gilman on September 8. Randy Schultz proved to be the wheel-horse in Colby's offense, as he rushed for 205yards in 29 carries with Gus Wenzel adding 99 in 15 tries. The final score in the Cloverbelt Conference opener was Colby 27 to Gilman 14. On September 15, undefeated and unscored upon Stanley Boyd came to Colby with hopes of beating the Hornets. Colby completely dominated all of the statistic departments: the Hornets led in first downs with 16 to 8, rushing 236 to only 50 for Stanley Boyd's, and 123 yards in the air on 8 out of 13 passes. The final outcome of the game was: Hornets 30, Stanley Boyd 7.



September 22, the Hornets traveled to Loyal for the two teams' annual grudge match. The final score was Colby 28 — Loyal 0. Kurt Mertens was the Hornets' leading rusher for 23 carries for 114 yards. Dave Sommer played sensationally for our Hornet defense, personally intercepting four of the five passes Loyal had stolen. By this win, Colby more or less put Loyal out of the running for the title. Thorp's game was defined as Colby's worst game, as they just sneaked past with a 14 to 11 win.

The Hornets tuned up for Owen-Withee's showdown on October 6 by defeating the Blackhawks 23 to 14. Randy Schultz was the leading rusher with 192 yards on 33 tries.

The 1972 Eastern Division Cloverbelt Conference football crown was at stake October 13, as the Hornets put their perfect 5-0 conference record on the line, the night Colby hosted Neillsville. Even if it was Friday the 13th, everything turned out well, as Colby celebrated a warm Homecoming victory with a score of 29 to 6.

The Hornets ended our 1972 football season with 7-1, when they rolled over Greenwood 32-8. Colby's leading rusher was Kurt Mertens with 189 on 27 carries.

The Hornets were really fired-up October 28th, as they scored three times within a 3 minute span in the first quarter, and then went on to whip Stanley Boyd with a score of 34 to 0, for the Cloverbelt Conference football crown. For the Hornets this was their second straight Cloverbelt Conference win under the leadership of Coach Duane Teska.

Roundballers Raising the Roof

This year's varsity team had a tough schedule. However, their spirits remained high throughout their challenging season, and their fans remained faithful throughout the trying season.

Every Hornet game proved to be a thriller, and Colby took 4th place in a hard-fought Cloverbelt Conference at the end of the season.

Colby's first conference game was a close one, with Neillsville barely edging over Colby by one point, 53 to 52. The next game, hosted by Greenwood, proved to be an exciting victory in Colby's favor, with an ending score of 42 to 36. Loyal came next in line and moved indiscreetly over Colby with a score of 64 to 76. Colby bounced right back by defeating Owen-Withee, 56 to 48. Thorp then dribbled a win over Colby with a final score of 80 to 62. Colby, of course, continued to show the BIG GREEN determination by stomping over Neillsville, 56 to 43, and later bopped Greenwood, 66 to 42. Zipping right along, Colby's roundballers staged a turnabout, and soundly defeated Loyal, 67 to 50. Things fell a little out of step as the Owen-Withee Blackhawks scratched the Hornet's record by defeating them by a score of 63 to 61. Their hopes of winning the Cloverbelt Conference title were shattered when the Thorp Cardinals put them in the red by a score of 63 to 59.

After months of determination and hard work, 1973 proved to be a season of victories and defeats, glory and tears, and pride and humiliation. Despite the ups and downs, the players kept up the spirit of a winning team.

Guts-It Grapplers

Guts-it grapplers is truly a fit name for this year's varsity wrestling team. We wrestled an undefeated conference season with only three other losses on the side. The team lost the help of two important senior members because of injuries. Gene Ruppert was out because of a torn cartilage and Al Becker because of a dislocated shoulder.

Four of the varsity wrestlers made it to the Wrestling Sectionals held at D.C. Everest, February 16 and 17. They were Rich Hainzlsperger, a senior, Gus Wenzel, a junior, Bill Neitzel, a senior, and Keith Kresbach, also a junior. The team did a fine job this season, losing to only three teams and showed great potential. Outstanding teamship was shown as everyone put their best effort forward to receive the Eastern-Divisional Conference Title and trophy. On behalf of the Colby High School, we would like to congratulate the wrestlers and their fine coach for an outstanding job well done!

Varsity Wrestlers: Keith Krebsbach, Dennis Baumgartner, Bill Neitzel, Mike Kaiser, Rich Hainzlsperger, Gus Wenzel, Gene Ruppert, Al Becker, Rich Rau, Steve Kadonsky. In front: Roger Krebsbach has Jeff Barr in hold while Coach Vic Bundgaard looks on.

"OK, who's turn is it this week to bribe the ref?"

This year's JV team really showed what wrestling was about, as they finished the season undefeated. The JV team will suffer the loss of three seniors, Bob Koontz, Dean Ruppert, and Bruce Pawlowicz, but will be looking forward to the many new interested faces of the 7th and 8th graders.

New Splashers at CHS

The girls' swimming team showed tremendous spirit as they swam in competition for the first time. With the help of their coach Miss Senderhauf, their diving coach, Mr. Gunderson, and the thirteen managers, they took on four schools, and then went on to sectionals. Because of their spirit and their desire to improve, the girls swim team will no doubt be a contender next year.

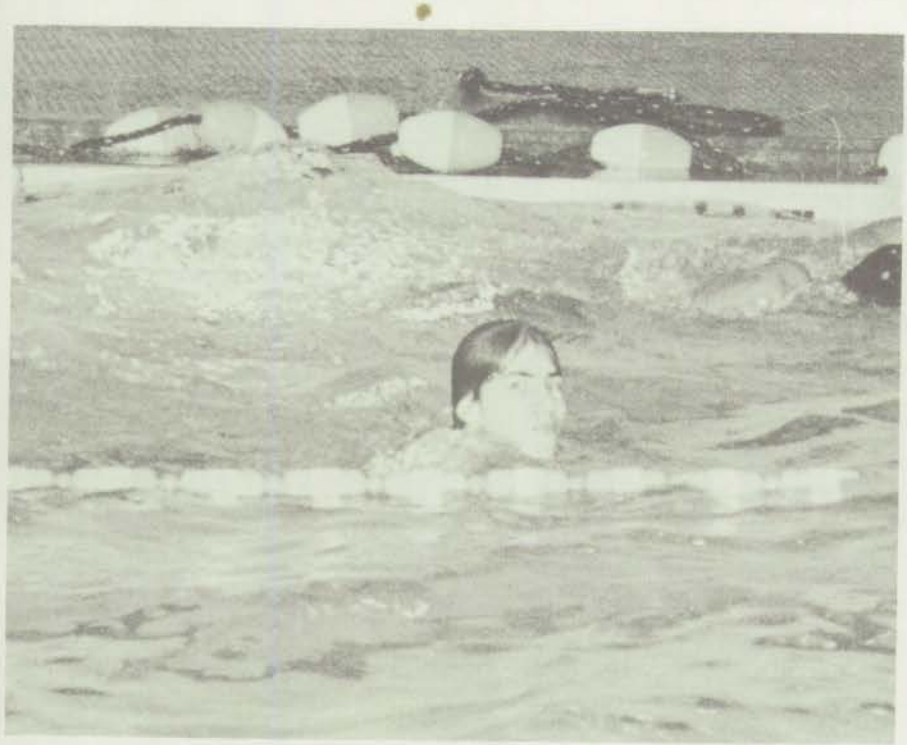
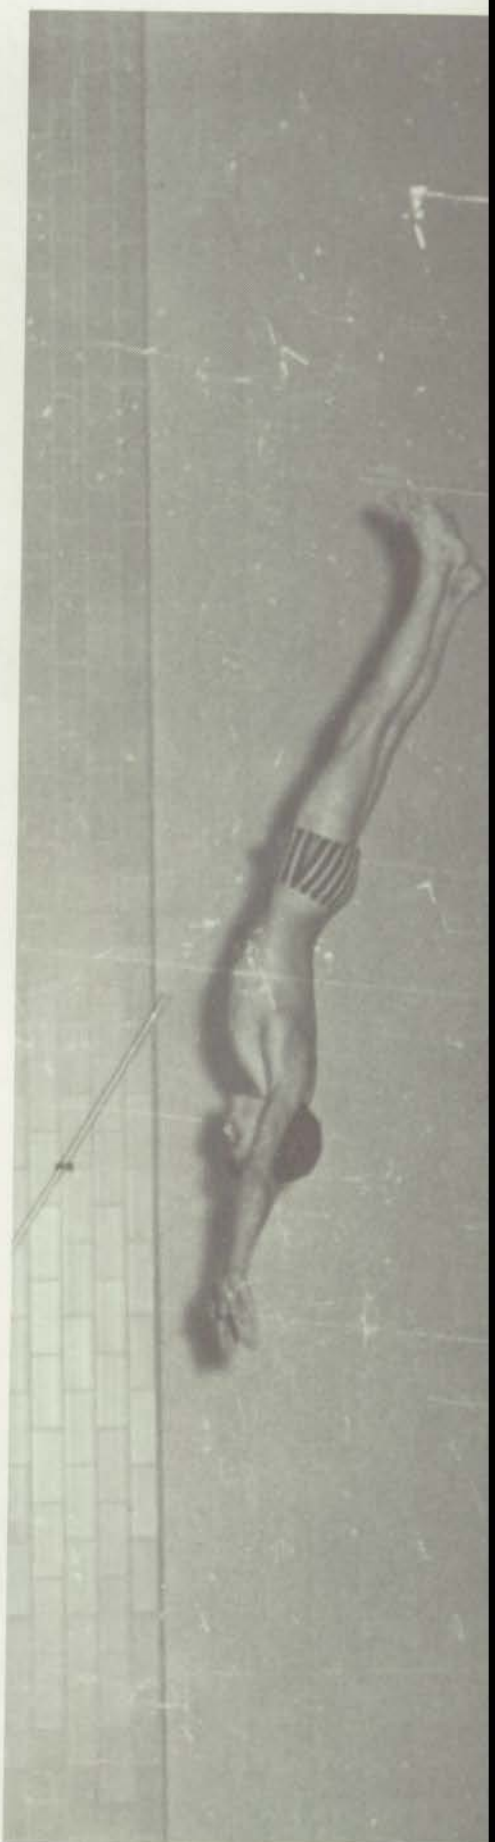
"Now—when do I blow the whistle"

"Hey, Buddy, you're doing the wrong stroke!"

In their second season of competition, the boys' swimming team undoubtedly showed signs of improvement. The Colby Tankers, under Coach Johnson, displayed sincerity as well as good sportsmanship at every meet they competed in. This season was climaxed by the team's 1st hard-fought victories over Medford and D.C. Everest. A smashing finish to an exciting season.



Girls and Guys Have a Splashout



Track Keeps Trucking

Last fall the Colby High track team had a fairly successful season. Every track member, along with Coach Johnson, agree that a lot of hard work and team spirit were the contributing factors behind their placing of second in the Conference. Besides the participants shown in the picture, credit must also be given to the seniors who gave an all-out effort for the team last year. Those seniors not pictured are: Dave Baumgartner, Glen Goeltz, Jim Allman, Bob Diedrich, Tony Del Fatti, and Bill Kadonsky.

Editors' Note

Six years ago, our class was the first to enter Colby High School as the seventh grade. We were all a little frightened — whether of upperclassmen, a new principal, the seeming maze of halls, or drowning in the swimming pool. During each passing year, changes became evident; changes within ourselves as we matured and within our school. The dress code was challenged and we were liberated by blue jeans; course offerings were enlarged; our athletic teams became champions once again; and we examined our values after the bombing incident. We will regret doing some of the things we did and passing by other opportunities. But can we ever forget high school?

This yearbook is an attempt to record the 1972-73 school year and help you, the student remember the experiences it brought. Hopefully, this has been accomplished in a favorable manner. Our thanks go to the administration, faculty, photographers, and to our advisors, Mr. Jarzin and Mr. Himes. The biggest job of all was that done by the annual staff itself. Though it was smaller than in previous years, the group was characterized by hard work and devotion.

May this past year be as memorable for all of you as it has been for us.
