"IF" was the theme of the 1976 Junior Prom. The Prom was quite unique because the announcement of the king was held the evening of the dance and the very exceptional aspect was the announcement of two kings. The dance floor was decorated in a ballroom setting with pillars and a fountain was the center of attraction. Members of the court were From Left To Right: Kim Wussow, Tim Ludwig, Paula Kops, Dean Bender, Queen Julie Frane, King Rodger Brost, King Dale Ballerstein, Queen Julie Reinhart, Arnie Reise, Debbie Oelrich, Gary Mohan, Karen Venzke, Joe Feldbrugge, Joan Schraufnagel, crownbearers: Bobby Clifford and Sandy Mohan.

This One's For You

"This One's For You was chosen as the theme song for this year's Sadie Hawkins Dance held on December 11, 1976. The Forensics club, sponsors of the dance, transformed the Colby Lower Elementary gym into an outdoor snow scene for the event. Music for the evening was provided by the Waldharts. Reign-over the dance were Queen Marie Frane and King Duane Birkett.

The 1976 football season saw Colby's first year in the Lumberjack Conference. Although the "all Class B" competition proved tougher than the smaller school Cloverbelt, the Hornets faired well, beating all teams except Mosinee, to end up in second place.

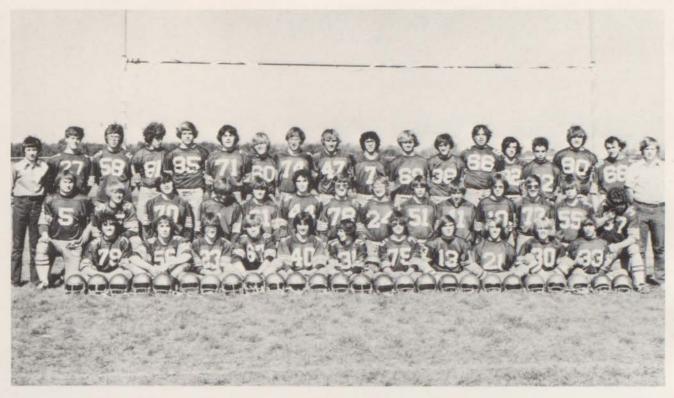

Coach Teska noted that he was very pleased with the fine job done by the team, more so than some of the teams that went undefeated.

Elected to all conference were Dan Brueswitz, Gene Peissig, Paul Rhyner, and Brain Rinehart. Earning honorable mention were Jim Clifford, Joe Feldbrugge, Mark Hunsader, Greg Lynn, and Randy Rannow. Coach Teska was also selected as Coach of the Year.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

This years Cross Country finished up with their season of running with the help of their coach, Mr. Paul Johson. The team worked their hardest in order to reach their goals. Ann Schmidt, who ran for the girls, also completed her season of running. Although the season wasn't as well as planned, coach Johnson was very pleased with the work of the underclassmen, and figures on a strong team in the seasons to come. Two of the guys won trophies, Rick Busse did a great job and received an All American Athlete Award, a high honor among high school standouts. Mark Fisher also did a fine job and received a trophie. This years team also participated in a skit for this years Homecoming skit night.

Although our swim season was not marked with a winning record, several outstanding team goals were achieved. Even with only 3 dual meet victories the team rallied to capture 5th out of 13 teams at Sectionals.

Perhaps, the highlight of the season was the upset victory over Medford. After losing to Medford by 28 points earlier in the year, the CHS gals came back to 87-84 win on Parent's Night. This victory meant much to the swim program as it proven that dedication and hardwork can pay off.

WRESTLERS GRAPPLE FOR VICTORY

The Colby High wrestlers had a fairly good year this year. Dean Bender, pictured above with Duane Birkett, set a record for ties in wrestling with eight of them. Dean, Duane, and Moose Rannow were the only senior members of the

HIGH HORNET CHALLENGERS

With the return of 6 varsity players, this year's season was expected to be very promising. However, at the start of the season when the Hornets lost their first 3 games, many fans were disappointed but their pace picked up and at the time of this writing they are tied for first place in the conference standings, after defeating Medford in a close and exciting game, thereby crushing Medford's hope of becoming conference champs.

Next year's season holds even high hopes as 9 varsity players will be returning.

This year the boys Track Team did a real good job with the help of their hard working coach, Mr. Paul Johnson, in concluding with sending two of the boys to state. They were: Rick Busse in the 880, and Marty Schjoneman in Pole Vaulting. Next year they will be in the Lumberjack Conference which has moved the track team up farther. Their team spirit gives them the courage to do even better in the year of 77 than they did in the year 76. They are looking for a good year.

Boys Track

With the help of their coach, the 7th and 8th grade track team showed their spirit.

The 7th and 8th grade girls track team worked up a storm and will do the same in 77.

Girls

1976 marked a year of new beginnings for the Girls Track team as our first team members qualified for State. While still rather new to the sport of track, C.H.S. girls went on to break 9 of 13 school records in only their third year of competition.

In conference action, Colby went on to place 4th in the Cloverbelt with both the 440 and Mile Relays being crowned Conference Champs. However, the biggest thrill was qualifying 1 individual and 1 relay for the State Meet. Representing C.H.S. in Madison were: Caryl Beyerl, Ann Schmidt, Linda Schmidt and Dawn Shelley.

While the whole team was to be commended for an outstanding team effort in 1976, three individuals were honored for their special contributions. Award winners were: Outstanding Freshman, Caryl Beyerl, Captain: Betty Thieme. Most Valuable, Dawn Shelley.

ANNUAL STAFF: WE'VE GOT IT ALL TOGETHER

It once again came that time of year when Mr. Hofland could be heard motivating one of the annual staff members who happened to pass him in the hall, reminding them to get their pages in by the deadline! Annual staff members can be seen scurrying through the halls with such terms as cropping, bleeding, copy sheet and dummy page ringing through their heads. Officers of this years annual were: (Pictured At Left) Karen Rueden-classes, Mark Gorke-faculty, Robin Schilling-Senior pictures, Julie Reinhart-dances, Brian Boettcher-head photographer, and Ruth Viergutz-special edition pages editor and ladder. #### JOURNALISM: "PRESS" ING THE ISSUES

This year's journalism class, in its never-ending search for news, continues to print pages faster than a computer, produce stories more shocking than National Inquirer, and thrill its readers more than Playboy. Well, . . . maybe.

In only its second year as a class, their teacher and co-advisor, Mrs. Thies, combines teaching new methods of writing, with advising, along with Mrs. Braatz, the production of the monthly school paper, which is considered one of the better papers in the area.

This year, the class traveled to Eau Claire for the workshop, where Rick Waldhart received honorable mention for the Congressional Cup.

Each month, a new editor is appointed, whose duties consist of assigning the articles, completing an editorial, proof-reading the paper, and making sure that all members have fulfilled their assignments. Writing the copy, typing, photography, and layout are some of the other duties needed to finish the paper.

THE A-V STORY

Jane Johnson-Vice Pres., Carrie Pfefferkorn-Pres., Cindy Brehm-Sec.

Without the advantage of this organization, the welloiled machine of Colby High School might well come to a halt. The Audio-Visual club is comprised of students from all four classes based on their ability to accept responsibility and dependibility. They are chosen by a group of their peers.

Many of the club's members are graduating seniors, prompting advisor Mr. Nomady to accept new members. Most of the new entrants were freshman and a vast majority of these were of the female gender, the greatest number allowed in the club to date.

A-V set a precedent for being the first organization at C.H.S. to decorate an entire room (the A-V room) for Christmas. The Members took in all aspects of religious orders from Christianity to Buddhism.

During the year, the club became notorious for its disruption of study halls and darkroom technique.

The dedicated members of the organization could easily be called the unsung heroes of the school, adding greatly to the educational system. They deliver projectors and repair broken films giving instructors more time to indulge in classroom activities. Through this dedication, Mr. Nomady has put together a club that immensely aids Colby High School in turning out the leaders of tomorrow.

Officers of the Library Club this year were: President-Brad Gokey, Vice Presient-Doreen Kilty, and Secretary -Brian Boettcher.

NHS: THE VERY BEST

National Honor Society is an organization with members who are willing to serve the community. Each accepted member is based on their motives, scholastic achievements and willingness to become involved. This year 19 new members were inducted on January 10th, making the total membership 63. All of the funds collected by the group are put back into community projects. Carrying this out without expecting recognition is the true spirit of NHS. The advisor is Mrs. Caskey.

GETTING THAT SPIRIT!!

Approximately 150 members are currently enrolled in the organization refered to as Pep Club. Aside from being the largest organization in the school, it is probably the most popular one too! Not only did Pep Club sell tams and scarfs and decorate the gym for homecoming, but they also sponsored an event which was truely a sight to behold to all who came!! Such was the donkey basketball game. This enthusiastic group picked four main people to be their leaders this year. They were: (Pictured At Far Right, To Bottom) Jim Clifford-President, Joel Benjegerdes-Vice President, July Judy Jicinsky-secretary, and Diane Haas-treasurer. ## GOOD ATHLETICS FOR ALL

GAA

Good Athletic for All is a club designed for students who want to do things beyond their regular gym classes. The club is designed as a recreational program. Their biggest project is the annual polka dance. This was their fourth year they have made it a success. Music was provided by the Waldharts. Some of GAA's other recreational activities were: Tennis, rollerskating, bowling, archery, free throw contests, co-ed volleyball, badminton and golf, Before students are fully certified members, they must be initiated. This year, for the first time, the seniors successfully put together a "gong show," where each new member had to show their talents.
