REVEW

The morning light is breaking Another day is here Life's problems must again be met With heart and vision clear.

Strength for today I ask,
Strength for only today;
Renew my faith, my hope revive,
Illume my skies of gray.

For yesterday is past
Tomorrow I may never see.
Today alone lies in my grasp
To use or eternally.

Help me to lend a helping hand,
To dry the falling tear
To give to all whose lives touch mine
Some comfort or good cheer.

Help me to sink my poor weak self with its longings, hopes and fears, In service to my fellow man, As I pass through this vale of tears.

Just for today, day by day,
Courage and strength I pray;
Garnering the good, forgiving the wrong,
Till I've lived my last today.

To those of us who knew Gwen, she was a special friend whom we all miss. Now she is a special memory and there will always be a place for her in our hearts.

The following, Childhood Friends, was the last poem Gwen wrote for the school newspaper. Her thoughts express how much she valued friendship. Without realizing it, the words and thoughts she used gave us the greatest gift she could have given anyone, her friendship.

Gwen's Friends

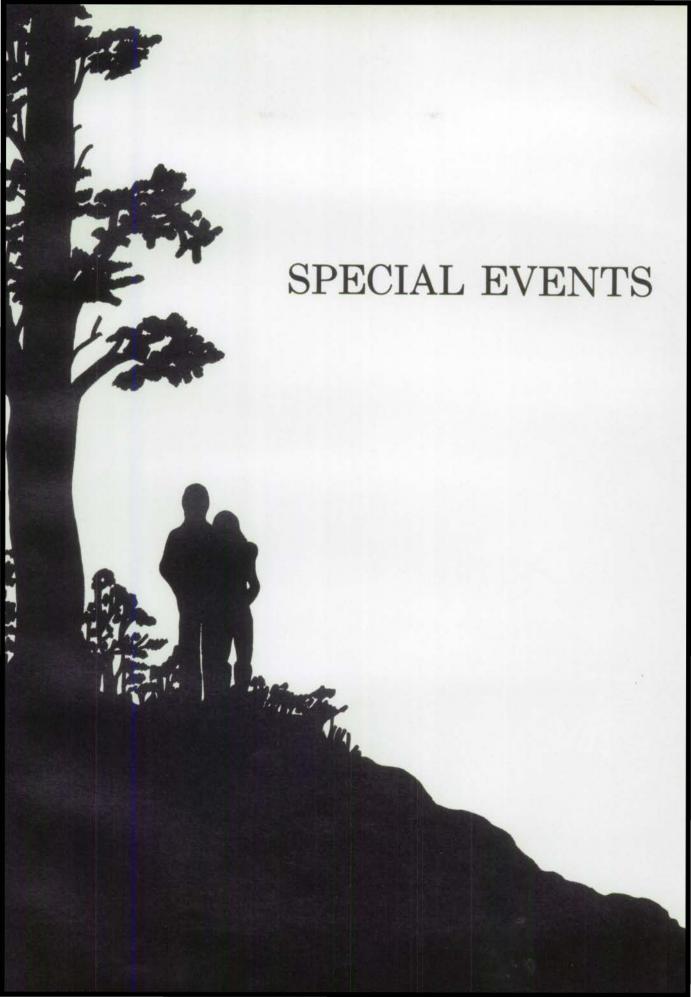

What happened? Once we were friends, vital and close Now we are enemies, a wave at the most.
We gradually drifted, further apart And not just miles separate our hearts.

Where did it go? We had so much to gain by being we But now it's all lost; now you, now me.
Our smiles once bright,
now become frowns
Our spirits once high,
now sink to the ground.

Where are we now? Thousands of miles separate our minds Another like you I'll never again find. How could we ever have let it all end? Hey, remember when we called each other friend?

What comes next?
Do we ever close this span of the past,
Or can we make it continue, make it last.
Will we save this between us, or let it die. Come on, my friend, let's give it a try.

Gwen Schmitt

Evergreen

Remember Howe You

Sadie Hawkins

MIGHTS ARE FOREVER

The theme of the 1977 Junior Prom was, "Nights Are Forever." King, Terry Schmidt and Queen, Denise Gustafson reigned over the merry festivities with other court members being: Mary Brown and Tim Meyer, Susan Rahm and Danny Koerner, Mary Clifford and Gary Mussow, and Doreen Kilty and Darnell Sazama. Crown bearers were Kelly Hainzlsperger and Scott Meyer.

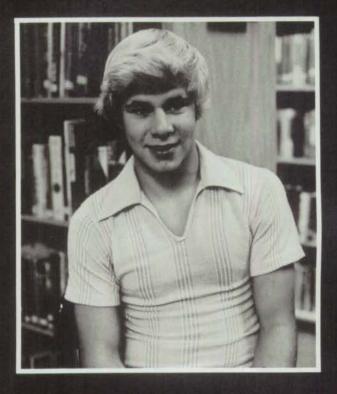

Couples enjoyed the soothing music of the Pave Edwards Band and the colorful decorations.

Highlighting the evening were the carousel, the grand march, and the bridge promenade.

Credit must be given to the many industrious juniors who participated in the planning and success of the 1977 prom.

President, Terry Schmidt

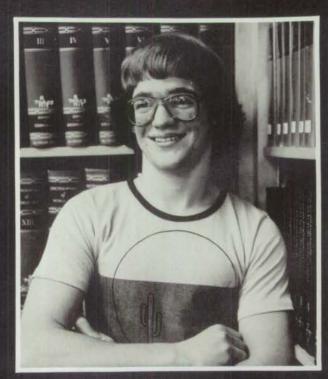

Vice-President, Steve Hunsader

WANDERER'S VISION

Throughout our days come moments of revelation, Moments of fresh awakening to the earth around us. These magic moments are as various as the seasons, As inevitable as the sun. They flow like Grains of gold through the hourglass of time, Becoming part of humanity's shared experience — A common treasure through which we can become Closer to all we see and hear and feel, More at home in the miracle of the universe.

Administration

The administrators of our school perform a wide variety of tasks necessary to insure the smooth operation of this school. The main job they perform is the enforcement of school policy. This is not always an easy job because they must interpret our school policy to fit each individual situation.

With this page we would like to honor and thank the administration for the dedication and help they have given us throughout the year.

School

Board

The Board of Education is a legislative body responsible for writing school policy. This is not an easy task, there are legal requirements which must be met and the opinions and needs of the community must be taken into consideration.

We would therefore like to dedicate this page to the Board of Education and commend them for their efforts. It is not possible for a human to achieve perfection. yet these men have diligently pursued this goal so as to present to us a school system we can be proud of. Once again, congratulations on a job well done. done.

1977 football ended it's season with only one loss. Medford and Mosinee proved to be the toughest games, but the team came through with great effort.

This year Colby launched six players to All-Conference. They were: Glenn Gaulke, Mark Hundsader, Gerard Feldbruegge, Craig Olund, Gene Peissig, and Brian Rinehart.

Making honorable mention were Tim Kiehl, Kevin Lynn, Brian Baumgartner, and Dale Gottschalk. Coach Teska was also selected as coach of the year for southern Division of the Lumberjack Conference. With several returning lettermen, the team for next year is very promising.

promising.

A Year To Remember

This year will be a year to be remembered by all, but especially by the girl's volleyball team. The girls remained undefeated throughout the season with a 13-0 record. With a bye from sub-regionals they journeyed on to regionals, and came out victorious with a 6-0 win. Down the road to sectionals at Black River Falls they met with defeat. They came through with a 1-7 record in which they defeated Durand in one game.

Not only was it a victorious year but alot of friendship was gained throughout the players.

Colby Tankers Show Spirit

The 1977-78 boy's swim team had a dissapointing season this year, mostly for lack of upper classmen experience. The team, made up of mostly sophomores and freshman suffered defeat at every meet so far this year, but put in an extra effort although they were short of swimmers. Two returning seniors anchored the team coached by Pat Nadler and assistant Jim Mavis. The guys should be commended for their hard work.

The seventh and eighth grade swimmers show promise and improvement and will no doubt be strong contenders in the future of the team.

The girl's swim team, in their sixth year, had their best season ever. Under the coaching of Linda Senderhauf and assistant Sandra Kronka, the team broke even with a record of six wins, six losses. Many close meets were lost by as little as two points.

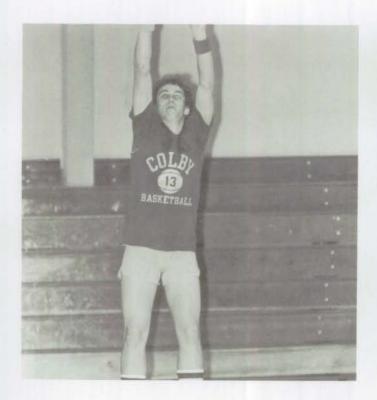

The year was successful all around as the girls pulled down nine out of ten school records and reached many personal goals also.

Although only two seniors returned, many underclassmen added depth to the team. The seventh and eighth grade swimmers did a great job for their first year, and the future of the girl's swim team looks promising.

Last Row: Kris Schafer, Belinda Fechhelm, Mary Clifford, Susan Rahm, Sue Krebsbach, Karen Flink, Jeri Feiten, Ellen Ackeret.

Annual Staff: Headache # 1

With many sighs of relief, the annual staff again, successfully completed another annual. Although under the supervision of a new advisor, Mr. Wayne Lubke, things went as planned. Many a devoted member spent numerous nights after school to work on pages. Especially Tim Meyer, this year's editor. Tim deserves a special thank-you from everyone, for without him the annual would be nowhere.

Something new for the annual staff this year was the sponsoring of Monday night skiing trips to Rib Mountain. It was open to the entire student body and many students took part.

A-V

Six new members entered A-V this year. They were accepted by means of application.

Apart from all the other years, the club had a Christmas part. Members had previously picked names and then exchanged gifts.

A-V members do a variety of things which include dipersing record players, projectors, tape recorders, and other things to those who need them. Members also replace lights bulbs and help fix equipment. Some A-V members take pictures, develop film, and print pictures.

This year there was quite a change made in the A-V room. Mrs. Evelyn Mueller was there to record educational programs for other school. She also acts as Mr. Nomady's secretary and keeps an eye on the room.

Elected as this year's officers were (L to R): Cindy Brehm-President; Kevin Bedroske-Vice President; Debbie Miller-Secretary-Treasurer.

Journalism

Journalism students continued to provide an outlet for student expression, promote school activities and to report issues which are important to the school.

The staff extended its scope this year to include community affairs. The staff was reorganized with one permanent editor-in-chief, Craig Mieritz and an editorial board consisting of News Editor-Peggy Becker, Sports Editor-Paul Yaron and Publications Editor-Karen Haas.

The staff attended the annual conference workshop in Eau Claire. Editor Craig Mieritz also attended a two week workshop at the UW-Eau Claire for learning improved newspaper techniques.

Editors: Karen Haas, Craig Mieritz, Peggy Becker.

The National Honor Society is designed to promote scholastic achievement and provide community service. This year, as a community service, a polka dance was held to provide an opportunity for members of the community to get together. The annual induction ceremonies were held on January 16, at which twenty-two new members were admitted.

The National Honor Society took on a slightly different appearance this year when the by laws were rewritten. This was done to keep the by laws up to date with N.H.S. activities. Many hours of work are put into the various activities by the officers and members, but the most important figure is Mrs. Caskey, the advisor. We would like to thank her for all her help and guidance.

Library Council

The Library Council continued its service to the school this year with more than ten aides. The aides have the job of doing routine things like checking out books and magazines, silencing students, and putting away books, Advisors of this group are: Mrs. Tennis and Mrs. Umhoefer. The Library Council was led by: President-Belinda Fechhelm, Vice-President-Grace Beyerl, and Secretary-Debbie Miller.

But remember Sh-h-h-h-keep it quiet.

Officers: Peggy Becker, Julie Caskey, and Suzi Mohan

The Student Council is a very important part of school. The purpose of Student Council was to build better communication between students and the faculty and administration. If students want a change they tell a member about it who passes it on to the faculty and administration. Members of this group are picked by their fellow students. The Student Council was led this year by President-Julie Caskey, Vice President-Peggy Becker, and Secretary-Treasurer-Suzi Mohan. Again as in the past Mr. Caskey was the advisor.

A Special Visitor From El Salvador.

The foreign exchange student at Colby High School this year was Paula Polanco. Being that Paula's hometown in San Salvador, El Salvador, Colby seemed quite small to her. Also, she said that the climate was different here than in Central America, were it's usually warm. The cold weather was quite a change for her and making a snowball was really a

The main thing Paula noticed when she first arrived in September, was the difference in the color of the eyes. In Central America, most people have dark brown or black eyes. Here, dark brown and black are not too common.

Paula took a variety of secretarial classes at C.H.S. and upon return to San Salvador, she plans to be a bi-lingual secretary. She took part in FBLA here at Colby.

Paula stayed with the Gerald Brehm family. She enjoyed living in Colby. According to her, the people are very friendly and talk alot!! She thanks everyone for their hospitality. I shall pass through this world but once.

If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show,
or any good thing I can do,

Let me do it now;

For I shall not pass this way again...

Memories are made of things That happen everyday, Moments as we live them Things we do or say.

Little bits and pieces
Of laughter mixed with tears,
Paragraphs and pages
Written through the years.

The carefree days of childhood, The growing pains of youth, A few illusions shattered, In the endless search for truth.

The friendships we remember, Mistakes that we regret, The ending of a love affair we never could forget.

Yes, memories are happenings, Each one a different kind, Each one a seperate chapter That is printed on the mind.

We can't erase the sadness, Or edit out the tears. We can't undo the wrong we've done. We can't revive the years.

But since memories keep on building, Today can be the start Of making new and happy ones To store within the heart!
