OLSON BREAKS SCHOOL RECORD

Many of you know Nate Olson as a star basketball player. Last year he became a track star too, this is what Nate had to say about it:
"Breaking the school record was a great experience for me, and one I will never forget. My freshman year Ryan Graff, the previous record holder, took me from jumping $5^{\prime} 2^{\prime \prime}$ to jumping $6^{\prime} 2^{\prime \prime}$ at the end of the season. I owe a lot of my success to him, and also to the great support of my teammates and coaches. In the beginning of my sophomore year I worked hard on refining my form, and it paid off on a sunny afternoon in Edgar when I cleared $6^{\prime} 7^{\prime \prime}$ breaking the old record of $6^{\prime} 4^{\prime \prime}$. It was a great feeling, and I hope to break the record again."

1. Kelly Hainzlsperger and Heidi Underwood let their school spirit soar.
2. Will you read us a story Senora Fults?
3. The Seniors show their homecoming spirit at the pep rally.

The week of September 30 -October 4 had students participating in pajama day, patriotic day, boxer short and black eye day, Oriental day, and, of course, green and gold day!

Classes competed each day for dress-up day points. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights were busy for all as the halls were decorated for judging on Thursday. The Sophomores won the decorating contest with a spooky Oriental graveyard.

Thursday afternoon we were released from class for the airband contest. The Seniors took the lead with a striking combination of "The Gambler" and "Thunderstruck".

The pep rally was held Friday afternoon. All four classes competed in an obstacle course set up by the cheerleaders. After a wonderful dance routine performed by the cheerleaders, "Hit Me", the Juniors (helped out by the Seniors) wrapped up the afternoon by taking first place in the cheer off.

At the end of the year,
When we've all said good-by.
Shed all our tears,
Let out our sighs.
Promising we'll keep in touch,
Never thought school would mean this much.
The school year went by so fast,
Now I wish that it would last.
But now that it's happened,
Gone by all too soon.
I'm all alone, in this dark, dreary room. All those memories to keep in my mind, Hoping that none of them will ever die. Thinking of all the time it took,
To put all the memories in this yearbook

The single most important thing that took place during the freshman football season is that we improved. In the win lose column we did not fair as well as we had hoped we would. It would have been very easy for these young men to decide not to work hard and continue to improve. As a result we were a much better team on the last day of the season than we were the first day of the season in August. Jeff Soderberg I kept going because it was more of a challenge. We all had to play harder and sacrifice more but it was well worth the effort.

Craig Kwosak
Any team that makes the playoffs can feel proud of their season. We were not far behind the best team in our division.

Jeff
Rosemeyer
It was a fun and exciting season.

Keith
Bumgartner
The enthusiasum and the effort this team had was great. This was a very enjoyable group of players to work with.

Overall, the swim team did extremely well this year. The number of swimmers was up. So, in turn, the scores improved also. There were quite a few close meets. All made personal goals and most were achieved. Five seniors are moving on this year: Deb Dahl, Jill Hedler, Glenda Lapp, Amy Ruesch, and Teri Sheets. Their years of dedication have been unsurpassed and deeply appreciated. As a team, we would like to say thank you to all who supported us.

After four years of being a cheerleader I have learned it is a sport of enthusiasm, dedication, and pride. It is up to the cheerleaders to bring spirit to the fans during a game. While cheering, whether it be for football, basketball, or any sport, if the team is winning you feel like you are winning.

A cheerleader's job is to keep the crowd excited no matter if the team is winning or losing. During the game, if the crowd is cheering, the cheerleaders are winners.

Cheerleaders are also the go-betweens among schools. It is the squad's duty to greet the other school's cheerleaders at home games. When things get down and dirty between schools, it is the cheerleaders' job to keep the crowd positive.

Cheerleaders are also responsible for setting up Homecoming Week and all of the activities. They prepare the pep sessions to make sure everything runs smoothly.

Being a cheerleader takes pride and determination. Even though cheerleaders are not always noticed or appreciated, it is an exciting experience and I wouldn't trade it for the world.

According to Hornet Highlights Staff members, working on the paper is tough, but worth it. They like seeing their names in print. Staff members also enjoy getting the paper, reading a story and realzing they were a part of the production. Amy Hartfeldt, advisor, had the following to say about working with the newspaper: "It challenges my abilities with language and allows me to see students grow in their use of language and have fun doing it.'
