SCHOOL

This year a definite change has taken place in the Colby High School. When school opened, the old steps had been removed and the new part was under construction. Then during our Christmas vacation the inside stairways were taken out. After a few weeks the new double lockers were installed. Every student at Colby High is proud of the improvements that have been made and I'm sure everyone will do his best to keep the building in good shape!

DEDICATION

The Senior
Class of 1952 wishes to dedicate this book to ARNIE MCKERNON, who has faithfully served the school and community for the past four years, not only as an excellent coach, but as a good friend and influential citizen as well. We, the Class of '52, take this opportunity to say--'Hats off to you, Coach!'

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

We, the Class of '52, wish to thank Mrs. Hemphill for the wonderful friendship and guidance she has shown us through the past four years. Mrs. Hemphill has helped us plan any and all activities our class has undertaken. She has always had a cheerful word, a big smile, and an endless amount of patience with us. Again we say 'thank you' Mrs. Hemphill for helping make our high school days happy, memorable and successful.

CLASS HISTORY

*LeRoy Kops
Grace Schulz
god watches*

Four years ago, in the year of nineteen hundred and forty-eight, forty-two frightened yet determined freshmen enrolled in the Colby High School to begin their high school career. In our freshmen year we had Mrs. Hemphill as our advisor and our class officers were Marlene Hibbard, Dorothy Wilson, Grant Smart, and Rodney Riedel. As carnival time rolled around we elected Kenneth Hasenohrl and Margaret Sazama to represent our class.

In our sophomore year we placed our business in the care of Rita Brill, Grace Schulz, LeRoy Kops, Franklin Hebert, and Mrs. Hemphill, our advisor. This was the year we had the pleasure of initiating the freshmen. As our carnival candidates we choose LeRoy Kops and Ruth Giese and came out in third place.

As time went on we became juniors and I guess we'll always remember our junior year in high school. Our class officers for this year were LeRoy Kops, Norman Ewert, Rodney Riedel, and Karen Hansen. With patience and time and with the helpful advisor, Mrs. Hemphill, our junior prom was a huge success. Norman Ewert and Karen Hansen were our candidates for King and Queen in our annual carnival.

Last, but not least, we became seniors and we began to realize that it was our last year of high school. We were very fortunate to have Mrs. Hemphill as our class advisor all four years. This year Norman Ewert, Lawrence Stettler, Joan Untiedt, and Norman Meinke were elected to handle the business. In the years to come we shall look back into four years and recall our Senior ball, class plays, carnivals, and our teachers. We sincerely hope that Colby High School will be proud of us and we hope that we'll be remembered as being an outstanding class.

-Margaret Sazama-

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of '52, being of sound mind and memory, having attained the pinnacle of wisdom, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

First: We leave to the Freshmen Class a cheery word of encouragement--'It won't be long now.'

To the Sophomores, we will our sophistication--don't be in a hurry to acquire it.

To the Juniors, we will our good conduct and strength of character.

To the Faculty as a whole, we will our hope that they won't have to wait long before they get another class like ours.

Second: We leave these following personal donations:

I, Grant Smart, will my good marks to Paul Dins.

I, Pearl Erdman, leave my position as FHA President to Gerald Uhlig.

I, Harold Loskot, will my shyness to Bill Marquardt.

I, Sally Schneider, bequeath my temper to anyone who wants to get as angry as I do.

I, Margaret Bane, will leave Home Ec. class to make direct use of it.

I, Mary Ann Schmitt, leave my acrobatics with Janet Laube.

I, Rheta Stammer, leave my 'quiet and devoted' attention in chemistry class to Audrey Whitney.

I, Kenneth Hasenohrl, will leave Margaret???

I, Marjorie Podevels, bequeath my trim figure to Marlene Dallman.

I, Donna Treankler, bequeath my pretty red hair to Marie Frinak.

I, Grace Schulz leave my tenor sax to anyone with eleven fingers.

I, Joanne Untiedt, bequeath my friendly quietness to Andris Achoelzel.

I, Lloyd Amacher, will my almost soundless laugh to Tom Jackel.

I, Marjory Leonhardt, will gladly leave.

I, Joyce Scheelk, leave my English book with Mrs. Vogler, I'll talk German from now on--it's easier.

I, Margaret Sazama, leave my hair style to Emily Smudde.

I, Karen Hansen, will my 'gift of gab' to the teachers.

I, Suzanne Steinwand, leave my walk to Kathleen Kaiser.

I, Muriel Brehm, bequeath my baritone to Harry Untiedt. I know he has enough wind to blow it.

I, Beverly Cendt, leave my troubles with anyone who wants them.

I, Marlene Hibbard, leave my dates and good times to Delores Schneider.

I, Ann Steinwand, bequeath my shorthand book to Miss Thomas--I prefer to do my corresponding in long hand.

I, Dale Kussrow, will my pepleless actions to Arnold Engeldinger.

I, Norman Ewert, bequeath my 'ambition' to Mrs. Vogler.

I, Rodney Riedel, leave my place on the basketball team to Fred Schmelzer.

I, Emerita Schoelzel, will my giggle to Eddy Martyn.

I, Edwin Drews, will continue to live.

I, LeRoy Kops, will have to leave Shirley to other wolves in school.

I, Rita Brill, bequeath my alarm clock to Phyllis Olson--it's guaranteed to get her to school on time.

I, Lawrence Stettler, bequeath my studious habits to Bill Frome.

I, Gerald Klessig, bequeath my position as basketball manager to James Nipko.

I, Norman Meinke, leave my 'Westerns' with Mr. Jackson.

I, Bill Serdar, bequeath my height to Billy Sazama.

I, Kenneth Kasper, will my ability to pester teachers to Myron Schulz.

I, JoAnne Markus and I, Geraldine Bowen will our ability to have fun whenever we are together to Arlene Jensen and Eleanor Bolda.

Signed, sealed, and published by the Senior Class in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred, and fifty-two.

CLASS PROPHECY

Ten years from now, 1962, a class reunion will be held in the gymnasium of 'dear old Colby High'. There we will learn these following things . . .

Dale Kussrow couldn't bear to leave Colby High, so he took over the duties as Janitor. Geraldine Bowen is teaching Home Economics in good old Colby High.

Muriel Brehm has remained in the Colby area and has just won the title of 'Miss Old Maid of Colby.'

Margaret Sazama has made us all very proud by winning the title 'Miss America of 1961.'

Karen Hansen is selling pencils on a street corner in Milwaukee.

Emerita Schoelzel is a scrub woman in the Waldorf Astoria.

Ann Steinwand is a famous Broadway star who has been divorced three times in two years.

Lawrence Stettler is the Professor of Math (figures) at Vassar (girls) College.

Joan Untiedt is another of our former classmates who is teaching Math. She is also married and raising a little problem.

Lloyd Amacher now lives in Hollywood and directs Roy Rogers movies in his spare time.

Harold Loskot is a very famous singer using the name--Vaughn II.

Kenneth Kasper is now with Spike Jone's Band--he plays the foot notes on a shoe horn.

JoAnne Markus is running a reducing salon in Hollywood; in this way she meets many famous Hollywood Stars.

Mary Ann Schmitt is selling bathing suits; at present she is making her headquarters at the North Pole.

Sally Schneider is testing a new type of kissproof lipstick.

Suzanne Steinwand is modeling evening gowns in the Paris Dress Shop.

Kenny Hasenohrl is a deep sea diver whose headquarters is in the Rockie Mountains.

Pearl Erdman is the Secretary of the Lonely Hearts Club.

Norman Meinke has married the granddaughter of Henry Ford; he always had a weakness for Fords.

Margaret Bane is the mother of triplets; all are cattle rustlers.

Grant Smart is teaching sign language on an Indian Reservation.

Bill Serdar is teaching natives of Hawaii the fundamentals of basketball.

Rodney Riedel is the owner of a drive-in restaurant. His motto is 'Service with a Smile if it Kills Me!'

Grace Schulz has just returned from a trip to the Orient. She brought back many antiques, including a husband.

Donna Treankler is the first grandmother to swim the English Channel.

Rheta Stammer is the Home Economics reporter on radio station CARL in Cherokee.

Margie Leonhardt has charge of the 151 telephone operators in the Colby exchange.

Norman Ewert is the owner of a large department store in the thriving metropolis of Atwood, Wisconsin.

Marlene Hibbard is a very capable Third assistant to the Second assistant to the First assistant of Schulz Farms, Inc.

LeRoy Kops has been elected President of the United States; the first thing he will do is destroy every Economics Book in existence.

Edwin Drews has left the good old U.S.A. and has become a missionary in the jungles of Africa.

Gerald Klessig is an American that has made a thriving business of selling Swiss Cheese in China.

Beverly Cendt is responsible for organizing the Society for the Prevention of Work.

Joyce Scheelk is the Physical Education Instructor at the University of Wisconsin.

Marjorie Podevels and Rita Brill are famous hitch hikers. They have published a book called 'The Quickest Way to Reduce.'

CAN YOU IMAGINE . . .

LeRoy without Shirley.
A noiseless Main Room.
Mr. Jackson without a tie.
A perfect report card.
A better annual than this one.
All the typewriters working at the same time.
A State Music Festival without Grace Schulz.
Perfect Attendance.
Miss Vienneau with a Mohawk haircut.
School vacation for 6 months.

WAS THERE A TIME WHEN . . .

Mr. Jackson didn't praise Boyd and a John Deere?
Karen didn't have an answer?
Miss Thomas wasn't smiling?
Coach wasn't liked by everyone?
Joan Untiedt didn't blush?
Bus trips to basketball games were dull?
LeRoy and Lawrence weren't talking in the Main Room?
Senior English was interesting?
Margie Leonhardt wasn't eating candy?
A pleasant odor came from the Home Ec. Room?
The telephone rang and someone was in the office?
No one came to class late?

WHAT IF . . .

Kenny Kasper's Pontiac didn't run.
We had school 7 days a week.
We had no semester tests.
Bill wasn't around at Prom time.
A week passed without a test.
Norman Ewert didn't get a 100 in a test.
The Freshmen were all A students.
There was no noon basketball.
Lawrence S. didn't study for a test.
The teachers gave no assignments.
Everyone liked basketball referees.

JUNIORS

In the fall of 1949, 46 green freshman entered the doors of Colby High. At present this class numbers exactly 40 students. During the past three years, however, we have lost that 'greenish tint'. It has been replaced by knowledge and confidence. This year we elected Don Kaiser as class President, Louis Koran,

Vice President, Roger Olson, secretary and Shirley Feind as treasurer. We are very fortunate to have the wise guidance of our advisor, Miss Thomas. As the annual goes to press, we are busily making plans for our Junior Prom. With hard work and a lot of fun combined, I'm sure we can make a huge success of it.

SOPHOMORES

This has proven to be quite a successful year for the class of 1954. At our first business meeting we elected Phyllis Olson as class President, Don Schuman Vice President, Dolores Strade, Secretary, and Ethel Hasseldick Treasurer. Our class is very active in all extra-curricular activities and I'm sure we'll continue to do so in our remaining two-years at Colby High School! By-Dolores Strade.

FRESHMEN

Last fall was the beginning of a new career for the 60 freshmen of Colby High. The first thing we did, was to place our business in the hands of Dennis Witte, Kenneth Hanson, Joyce Radeztsky and Marlene Schmitt. Miss Vienneau is our advisor. When it came initiation time, the sophomores gave us a nice party. We also had a lot of fun during the day. Lets hope that by the time we graduate we'll make Colby High proud of us! By-Marlene Schmitt.

F H A

The year 1951-1952 has been a very eventful one for the Future Homemakers Department of Colby High. Officers were elected as follows: Pearl Erdman; Vice-President, Margaret Sazama; Secretary, Margaret Bane; Treasurer, Rita Brill; Reporter and Historian, JoAnne Markus; Parliamentarian, Barbara Bender; and Music Leader, Audrey Whitney. We had a joint Christmas Party with the FFA. We also had a Valentines Party at one of our noon meetings. Our Chapter attended the FHA Rally at Greenwood. It was a successful rally, and everyone had a good time. Our Chapter also took part in the FHA demonstration contest. Our advisor, Miss Miller, left us in January, after setting us off to a good start. Then Mrs. Wiersig took over, and with her wise guidance brought the year to a successful close. By-Pearl Erdman.

F F A

The 1951-1952 school year was very successful as far as the Colby Chapter of the F.F.A. was concerned. Under the expert guidance of our instructor, Mr. Joyce, the Colby Chapter proved to be one of the most successful organizations in the state. The following officers were elected for this school term: Lawrence Stettler, President; LeRoy Kops, Vice-President; Dale Kussrow, Secretary; Grant Smart, Treasurer; Norman Ewert, Sentinel, and Norman Meinke, Reporter. The various activities which were strongly stressed were farm safety and rat and mouse control.

This last project was carried out to the extent that the chapter ordered poison, which was distributed to the members at cost. The chapter also had a basketball team, planned a trip to Eagle River in the spring, and had a joint initiation party with the F.H.A. The department also sold cards and maintained a booth at the Wisconsin Valley Fair. We also participated in the sale of magazines, from which the profit was divided with the F.H.A. We hope that next year will be even more successful for this organization. By-Lawrence Stettler.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Colby High School has always had a good record concerning the music department, which includes the band, pep band, glee club, and many ensembles and solos. Yes, we can say Colby High is really musically minded. This year our Senior Band is directed by Mr. Lowell Ives. Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon strains of overtures and snappy marches remind us that the 35 members of the band are gathered to practice. During basketball games the 17 members of the Pep Band do their best in producing pep and backing for our school. The Glee Club is under the direction of Miss Esther Vienneau this year and has 46 female voices. The girls meet every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon. The ensembles are made up of a Girls Trio, a Girls Quartet, and several duets and soloists, also several instrumental solos and ensembles. The big event of the year, for the people who are interested in this type of work, is the Music Festival which is held at Medford. The exceptionally good musicians take part in the State Music Festival. Last spring, Colby High was represented at the state contest by a Triple Trio, and Grace Schulz, who honored our school, by getting a first rating on a Class A Tenor Sax solo. The students are already working on solos for this years contest. May we say 'Good Luck' to a fine group of musicians!

For the past several years Colby High School has had the good fortune to have Bill Bauer as janitor. We students all realize how helpful Bill really was. Our class especially appreciate all the help Bill has given us at Prom time and for any other activities. However, about half way through the year we had the misfortune of losing Bill as janitor, because of poor health. Everyone certainly has missed him. We take this opportunity to say 'Thanks for all the help Bill'!

SNAP

We, the Senior Class of '52 wish to take this opportunity to thank 'Snap' Lukowicz for taking all the pictures necessary for making our Eau Pleine a success. Your co-operation and fine work is very greatly appreciated!

JUNIOR PROM

April 18, 1951 was a day that we looked forward to for a long time. That day our gym was transformed from a basketball floor into a dance hall. For weeks we worked hard manufacturing apple blossoms on mass production to carry out our theme 'Apple Blossom Time.' The entire gym was decorated in green, pink and white streamers and in the middle of the floor was a tree decorated with artificial apple blossoms. LeRoy Kops and Shirley Young led the Grand March, which climaxed the evening, to the music of the 'Squires'.

SENIOR BALL

This year, soon after school started, we Seniors began to think about the Senior Ball. We set the date for November 2. Howard Sturtz and his Swing Kings, furnished the music. We picked out a theme that we thought was quite appropriate for the occasion. It was 'The Loveliest Night of The Year.' The gym was trimmed in yellow, rose and green, at the very top of the false ceiling we put balloons of many bright colors. One end of the gym, we fixed up as a small garden with dancing silhouettes. I'm sure that was a night that will long be remembered by all of our classmates! By-Muriel Brehm.
