The 88 bashful freshmen who entered Colby Union High School in September of 1958 finally became full-fledged students after a gruesome but hilarious initiation.

The high point to many of us in our second year was when Mr. Haavisto let us mad sophomores behind the wheel of the drivers' training car.

We will never forget the theme, "Enchanted Sea," of our Junior Prom with enrapturing music by Lynn Wench and his orchestra. This was also the year we received our beloved "Crown Jewel" class rings.

As learned seniors, our graduating class of 78 bids a fond farewell to Colby Union High and its wonderful memories.

The Hillcrest, our annual, is the combined effort of all the classes, organizations, and students of the school. Work is begun in the fall by the organization of the staff. The editor delegates the various duties to individual members and the work of ad solicitation, news gathering, picture taking, identification, layout, and typing is begun. The work is under the supervision of a faculty advisor. Annuals are printed and distributed late in the spring. No charge is made for the annual as this is included in the student activity fee.

Football

Mr. Caskey greeted fifty football candidates the third week in August for the first football practice. With the first game of the schedule, September 8, Mr. Caskey and Mr. Page had only two short weeks to get the squad ready for the opener with Cadott. Colby lost the first game, 20-6, after putting up a good battle. The first half was scoreless, but in the second half Cadott pushed over three touchdowns. The best the Colby Hornets could do was to get the ball across the goal line once.

In the first home game against Columbus, the Hornets gave hometown fans something to cheer about by keeping the score close until mid-way in the third quarter. The Columbus team outclassed the Hornets in the last two quarters and scored at will.

The third game of the season was played on a rain-soaked field at Greenwood. Although the Hornets fought hard, they were never in the ballgame. Greenwood scored on the first play from scrimmage and went on to score five more times as they crushed the Hornets 39-0.

The Hornets put up a good battle against the Spencer Rockets, but the Rockets exploded in the second half and took the sting out of the Hornets by defeating them in the homecoming game 19-6.

The fifth game on the schedule proved to be one of the toughest tasks of the year for Mr. Caskey's chargers as they went down to defeat at the hands of Auburndale 42-0.

Basketball

Colby's '61-'62 basketball season took on the semblance of a roller coaster. The year started on a low rung with two opening losses to Thorp and Owen-Withee. In the next four games Colby got on the winning route. It was during this winning streak that they played one of their best games of the season against Cornell. They reached the apex of their winning streak just before they fell to defeat at the hands of Spencer. From the Spencer game on it was down hill again for two more games. The Spencer game shattered Hornets' hopes for a 3-C conference championship this year with Dor-Abby adding the coup de grace. After the Dor-Abby victory over Colby, the Hornets again took to the victory trail and finished the season with an impressive string of victories.
